Russia's Communist World Split Into Two Groups—City, Country

MOSCOW (AP)—A drastic shakeup of Soviet party and government organs today divided the Soviet Union's Communist world in two—city Communists and country Communists.

The object: to meet Premier Khrushchev's demands for more goods and more crops. The Communist Party's Central Committee, ending a week-long meeting in the Kremlin on Fri-

Stewardess Former Green Bay Resident

MARQUETTE, Mich. (AP)—Stewardess Mary Kline, 21, a former resident of Green Bay Wis., who she was employed by a paper mill, was listed among the victims of a United Airlines plane crash today at Homestead, Md.

The attractive Miss Kline was the only daughter of J. H. Kline, president of the Lake Superior and Ishpeming Railway. A graduate of Gravenet High School in Marquette, she had been a secretary for a Green Bay paper company before joining the airline.

Miss Kline completed airline training last June in Chicago and had been based at Newark, N.J.

South, West Ahead of Midwest

Census Figures Show American Population 'Following the Sun'

WASHINGTON (AP)—The American population is still following the sun.

The sunny South and West, according to Census Bureau estimates Friday, are outstripping the East and Midwest in growth. The states leading all the others in new residents—both by birth and migration—are California, Texas and Florida.

In the rivalry over which is the biggest state in the Union, California seems a cinch to pass New York before long. It's gaining population more than twice as fast as the Empire State.

8 Per Cent

The Bureau estimates that between the 1960 census and last July 1, California's population increased by 1,235,000 to give it a total of 16,970,000—or a rate of increase of 8 per cent.

New York's population went up 619,000 (3.7 per cent) to 17,402,000. The vast Lone Star State expanded by 537,000—a 5.6 per cent

India Requests Red Chinese to Explain Offer

Several Points on Proposal to End Shooting 'Unclear'

NEW DELHI, India (AP)—India has asked Red China to clarify several points of its offer to settle the undeclared Himalayan border war, the Foreign Ministry said today.

A spokesman said Foreign Secretary M. J. Desai summoned the Chinese charge d'affaires in New Delhi Friday and "put to him several points about China's cease-fire proposal which required clarification." He said the Chinese diplomat is "obtaining clarification from Peking."

The Foreign Ministry spokesman declined to say what the points were.

Red China ordered its troops in the disputed border areas to cease-fire last Wednesday. It promised to pull its troops back on Dec. 1 to a point 12½ miles behind what it described as the line of actual control.

Under Consideration

The Indian spokesman said the Chinese proposals are still under consideration, although Prime Minister Nehru has indicated he would not accept the Chinese terms. By acceptance, the Indians would have to give up claim to 12,000 square miles of disputed territory in Ladakh on India's northwestern border with China.

Nehru has indicated he believes the border fighting will erupt again and that he wants Chinese troops off what he considers Indian soil.

The Indians were believed taking

Martial Law in Venezuela Ends

CARACAS, Venezuela (AP)—The government rescinded martial law in Caracas Friday and cancelled its call for 5,000 armed forces reservists during the Cuban crisis.

Interior Minister Carlos Andres Perez said the National Defense Council also revoked emergency powers given the Defense Ministry to protect oil and iron ore installations from sabotage. He said the council felt these measures no longer are necessary.

However, constitutional guarantees suspended Oct. 8—before the Cuban arms quarantine—will be withheld, Andres Perez said, as long as the government considers it necessary in the battle against terrorism.

China Offers to Sign Treaty With Pakistan

Kennedy and Macmillan Talk Likely

Leaders Expected To Review World Affairs at Meeting

WASHINGTON (AP)—President Kennedy and British Prime Minister Harold Macmillan are expected to meet soon for a wide-ranging review of world affairs in a time of change.

Western strategists still are unsure of what lies beyond what Kennedy has termed a possibly "important turning point" in East-West relations. But they are agreed on the need to have the United States and Great Britain chart their course together.

Britain and the United States are both involved in major unresolved issues on the international scene—the India-China dispute, Berlin, disarmament and the Congo.

Both American and British sources agreed Friday on the likelihood of a Kennedy-Macmillan meeting in the near future, but said an exact time and place has not yet been worked out. London informants said Macmillan expects to cross the Atlantic shortly after Christmas.

Long Weekend

At Hyannis Port, Mass., where Kennedy is spending a long Thanksgiving weekend, assistant presidential press secretary Andrew Hatcher would say only that "it is highly probable" that the two leaders will get together "some time soon."

Meetings between the American and British government heads are comparatively frequent. Kennedy and Macmillan have gotten together five times since Kennedy took office last year, the latest occasion being a visit by Macmillan to Washington last April.

The Washington consensus is that the President and the prime minister will be surveying a scene of great and unpredictable change in world events.

Astronaut Cooper Will Be on Scientists' TV During Orbital Flight

HOUSTON, Tex. (AP)—Astronaut Leroy Gordon Cooper Jr., will be seen on scientists' television screens during portions of his scheduled 18-orbit space flight next April.

In an interview Friday, Cooper said a miniature transmitter will flash images of the inside of the spacecraft back to earth when it is within range of a receiving station.

Alan B. Shepard Jr., the nation's first spaceman—who is Cooper's backup man—said the television picture of Cooper won't be on commercial networks—at least immediately.

"The transmitter will be operating on a different scan speed," Shepard said. "The pictures could be shown on commercial television later after the scan speed is converted."

Reynolds Probably Will Get Chance to Veto Sales Tax

GOP Leaders Panzer, Haase Say Bill Has Solid Support

BY JOHN WYNGAARD

Post-Crescent Staff Writer

MADISON — John W. Reynolds will get the chance to make good on his promise to veto a general sales tax bill after he is installed as governor, two prospective leaders of the Republican majority in the state legislature said flatly here Friday.

Sen. Frank Panzer of Dodge County, almost certain to retain his rank as Senate president and the ranking member of the upper chamber of the legislature, and Assemblyman Robert Haase, Marinette, who expects to be chosen speaker of the Assembly, told reporters here the only question is the timing of a showdown on the sales tax question between the Republican lawmakers and the Democratic governor-elect.

Panzer said the legislature would wait for a "reasonable time," perhaps until February, after the convening of the legislature in January, for the submission of a Reynolds tax program.

Democrat Opposition?

Both of the Republican spokesmen said confidently that Reynolds won't be able to get sufficient legislative support to enact the higher income tax rates he talked about during his successful campaign. Haase predicted that even some of the Democrats in the legislature would refuse to follow such a lead.

The legislative party leaders reported their views following caucuses of the returning and newly elected Republican members of the legislature at which the prospective collision on tax policy with Reynolds was obviously discussed and analyzed. The confidence

U. S. Polaris Missile Power Greater, 10th Nuclear Sub Launched

NEW YORK (AP)—The United States will be capable of launching 160 Polaris missiles when sea trials of her 10th nuclear submarine are completed, Vice Admiral Hyman G. Rickover says.

In a letter written recently and published Friday, he said:

"We have just successfully completed the first sea trials of the U.S.S. Thomas Jefferson, our 10th Polaris type nuclear powered submarine."

"With this ship we will have the capability of launching 160 missiles from submerged platforms, whose whereabouts are not known to a potential enemy. This deterrent force speaks louder than words; as long as it exists a potential enemy knows that he himself can be destroyed if he attacks the United States."

Learning Out of Classrooms

Teachers Advised to 'Utilize Mass Media'

MIAMI BEACH, Fla. (AP)—A recent report that the average high school English teachers were asked today to face up to the fact that at least 1,500 invitations to buy that "in our cities, most learning occurs outside the classroom."

William D. Boutwell told a convention meeting of the National Council of Teachers of English: "The sheer quantity of information conveyed by the press, magazines, films, television and radio far exceeds the quantity of information conveyed by school instruction and texts."

"This challenge has destroyed the monopoly of the book as a teaching aid and cracked the very walls of the classroom."

Boutwell was reviewing a new book, "Using Mass Media in the Schools," which the council sponsored and of which he was editor. Mass Media

He told the English teachers they have a deep responsibility to read magazines and listen to the radio and 94 per cent are inveterate viewers of television.

Pact Would Ban Future Aggression

RAWALPINDI, Pakistan (AP)—Communist China has offered to sign a non-aggression pact with Pakistan, informed sources said today. The offer was made in a note from Peking to President Mohammad Ayub Khan's government.

Pakistan's Foreign Minister Mohammad Ali refused to comment on the report. But he said he had received and accepted an offer from Premier Chou En-lai to visit China at an early date.

Ali made the remark to newsmen in the lobby of Parliament House. There was no comment immediately from any other official source.

Reliable parliamentary informants said, however, that the report was correct and that the Chinese offer was not being considered by the government.

Proposed Pact

The Karachi English-language Daily Dawn carried the report prominently. It said a point of the proposed pact was an offer by China to help Pakistan "against aggression from any quarter."

It added that the Chinese had raised no objection to Pakistan remaining a member of the pro-Western CENTO and SEATO alliances if such a pact was signed.

The reported offer came during an emergency session of the Pakistani National Assembly, which has heard strong criticism of the United States and Britain, Pakistan's allies, for rushing arms to India.

Pakistan feels these arms are a threat to her. Some Pakistanis, in the disillusionment with the Western powers, have been talking of adopting neutralism as a policy.

Red China's unilateral cease-fire on the border with India and the offer of a troop pullback has bolstered the Pakistani view that the present Indian-China conflict is only a temporary flareup which merits no Western assistance to India.

"Border Affair"

In the debate today, the United States was accused of making "a local border affair" between India and China into an expanding "full-fledged global war" for its own benefit.

The accusation was made by Sardar Bahadur Khan, brother of President Ayub Khan and leader of the opposition.

He said the supplying of arms to India disregarded Pakistan's safety and security.

Khan said the Pakistan government should "change its foreign

Kuehn Restricts Vote Recount to Milwaukee Area

MILWAUKEE (AP) Philip G. Kuehn, the unsuccessful Republican candidate for governor, said Friday his recount of ballots in the Nov. 6 election will be restricted to scattered precincts in Milwaukee County.

In announcing his recount will not be extended to any of the state's other 71 counties, Kuehn said, "I have spent the better part of the day analyzing these returns and will not ask for a recount outside of Milwaukee."

Kuehn asked for a retotaling of ballots in 128 city of Milwaukee precincts and one in the city of Cudahy.

Kuehn, defeated by Democratic Atty. Gen. John Reynolds by 11,955 votes, said he did not ask the recount in anticipation of altering the outcome of the election, but "to find out if there's something wrong, whether there's any dishonesty or just inefficiency." The city of Milwaukee recount will begin Monday.

Council Has Final Say on Doctrines

Great Deal of Discussion at Vatican on Controversial Thesis

VATICAN CITY (AP) — The whole Church has the floor and is having its say.

That is the basic fact of the Vatican Ecumenical Council today. Many voices and many minds, shaped under diverse backgrounds and propounding varying views, are forging the new contours of the Church.

Ordinarily, for Roman Catholicism, it is Rome alone—the Pope and the Vatican Curia—that spreads the final and authoritative word. As St. Augustine once put it: "Rome has spoken. The case is closed."

While this remains the case, in a jurisdictional sense, the voice of Rome has become a vast chorus.

It encompasses the accents and insights of many places and peoples, the urgencies of Asia and Africa, the ideas of the Orient, the ways of Americans, the experiments of European churchcraft.

Although the fundamentals of doctrine unite these men, they have come laden with creative plans and fresh approaches to renew their church.

Pushing Them
They are pushing them—in full, forceful, unrestrained fashion.

As Bishop Thomas William Muldoon, of Sydney, Australia, put it: "If anyone thought for a moment that the bishops of the world were brought here to rubber-stamp a set of pre-determined proposals, he could not have been further from the truth."

"Each one has a chance to speak his mind . . . and I can assure you that the bishops are taking full advantage of their rights."

All this goes on in the ancient syllables of Latin, but as the weeks go by, the bishops have become more and more articulate in it—losing off impromptu remarks with casual ease.

But the significant factor underlying it all is the coalescence of views, the way contrasting ideas serve as catalysts in producing conclusions.

"Many of us have changed our minds about a lot of things since coming here," an American bishop said. "Some bishops that were out-and-out conservatives have seen the need for changes."

Although essential doctrine is regarded immutably true, there are many proposals in the works for fuller interpretations, clarifications, and modifications in practices.

Said This
As Archbishop Edward D. Howard, of Portland, Ore., put it:

"Safeguarding the integrity of dogma does not mean that nothing can be done regarding existing difficulties in the field of doctrine. Too often the difficulties arise from the fact that the sense of dogma is not well understood or is even perverted."

Clearing up these matters, he adds, can bring closer understanding with other Christians.

This objective—opening the door toward eventual Christian reunion—remains a major, prevailing theme of this historic gathering.

This does not mean that Catholicism is going to give up its centuries of traditions, which are treasured as the legacy of Christ's guidance over the years.

But it may mean that the hard lines of opposition between Catholicism and Protestantism, set at the Council of Trent in the 16th century, may be softened.

That by-gone council "may not be reformed," Archbishop Howard said, "but it may be completed."

Today's Etiquette

BY LOUISE DAVIS

TARDINESS

It is incredible that there are many people who are always late for appointments. Women, alas, are the worst perpetrators of this stupid and thoughtless social indiscretion.

Davis

Late comers seem to come in two classes: procrastinators, and those who think it's smart and clever to keep others waiting. Whatever the category, tardiness is thoughtless and selfish, with no consideration of the inconvenience and irritation of those who must wait.

Procrastination is a bad habit. With self discipline, it can be cured. It's worth curing, because failing to be on time is a sign of ill breeding. All the worse for those who do it deliberately. All are forcing impositions and aggravations on those who are being "stood up," and you can be sure nobody likes waiting. The only excuse is an emergency, which is rare, indeed.

The height of rudeness is arriving late for a luncheon or a dinner party or for anything where a specific hour has been set. A hostess stipulates the exact time she expects her guests. Her guests have a moral obligation to be punctual. Many a dinner has been ruined because careless friends have been a half hour late.

Obviously such punctuality isn't necessary for such social occasions as an Open House or a tea. If, for example, a hostess states the hours "from 4 to 6," it means that her guests may come any time between those hours, but a considerate person wouldn't arrive at 5:30.

The POWER of FAITH

By WOODIE ISHMAEL

(AP Newsfeatures)

When Lutheran Bishop Otto Dibelius received an honorary degree from Southern Methodist University during a visit to America last year, the president of the Dallas institution called him "the symbol of the church's finest hour in our time."

Replied the doughty, 81-year-old bishop: "I am a simple, modest servant of the church."

Both descriptions are apt. In his simple but staunch way Bishop Dibelius, recently retired head of the Berlin diocese of Germany's Evangelical (Lutheran) Church, is one of the bitterest enemies the East German Communist regime ever had.

Before the communists built their wall, Bishop Dibelius made monthly visits to preach to his flock in the eastern sector of Berlin. His sermons were studded with anti-communist barbs which would have landed a lesser figure in a red prison cell.

Such a test of faith would have been nothing new to Dibelius. A generation ago he was jailed by the Nazis for attacking them fiercely—reminding them, among other things, of the Jewish origin of Jesus.

Before his retirement, Bishop Dibelius made a heartfelt plea to his colleagues everywhere:

"I beg the church never to surrender to the powers of this world . . . I pray for all who hold office in the church that their courage may not fail . . ."

Your Problems

Non-Supporting Father Loses Right of Seeing His Children

BY ANN LANDERS

DEAR ANN LANDERS: For 10 years I was married to a man who drank bourbon out of cough syrup bottles, lied a blue streak, and even took money out of my purse. I divorced him in 1958 when I discovered he was giving my clothes to his girl friend.

Our children are now 9 and 7 years of age. He didn't support them when we were married and he doesn't send them anything now. I'm not complaining—just relieved that I no longer have to support him.

My wonderful mother makes her home with us now and we've never been happier or more solvent. I had not heard one word from my former husband until last week. He telephoned (collect) to say he's living in a rented room—sick and broke. He asked me to bring the children to see him.

My lawyer says he has no rights whatever and to stay away from him. My mother says it is morally wrong to keep a man from seeing his children, regardless of how rotten he may have been. What do you say?—Fern

Dear Fern: If it took this guy four years to get lonesome for his children he must be a dachshund. Take your lawyer's advice. You need this man back in your life like Miami needs another hurricane.

DEAR ANN LANDERS: Thanks for your column. You have shown you can take constructive criticism, so here goes.

Your reply to "Miffed," in my opinion was incorrect. You said it was "cheap" of the guest to send a bill to replace the hosiery torn by her pet cat. A person is legally liable for damage or injury inflicted by their pets, whether it is $2 or several thousand dollars.

From the records: Cat takes nap in rear seat of guest's car. Driver did not know cat was there. At a busy intersection cat jumps on back of driver. Result—serious collision. Owner of cat liable.

Cat runs in path of elderly woman, causing her to fall. Result—broken hip. Owner of cat responsible.

I know you strive to make your column accurate as well as entertaining, so please print this letter to set the record straight.—L.A. Reader

Dear Him and Her: Sorry, it is not considered proper for engaged people to send a gift "jointly." He should send something on his own, and so should you.

DEAR ANN LANDERS: Our daughter has become obsessed with the idea of having her nose remodeled. She is 17, a fine student, and normally a sensible girl.

Please believe me there is nothing wrong with Bessie's nose. It goes with her face. I've tried to point out to her that some of the most famous and successful people in history have had prominent features. Their faces had character and impact. People remember them.

Four girls in Bessie's crowd have had their noses done. This is where she got the idea. All their noses look like they came out of the same mold. I'm afraid the operation would destroy her individuality. What do you say?—Q.T.

Dear Q. T.: It's not what I say, or what you think that counts. It's how Bessie feels that matters.

If she is wildly eager, give her your blessings. The new nose may make her look less individual, but it could do wonders for her morale.

When wood is completely dry, sand smooth and apply a top quality spar or marine varnish, being sure to coat all edges of the door, as well as the front and back to prevent moisture penetration into the wood. Two coats should be applied, allowing the first to dry completely before applying the second.

Why Question Diet Ordered by Doctor?

BY JOSEPH G. MOLNER, M.D.

Dear Dr. Molner: My husband is recovering from a massive coronary heart attack. He is 70 years old. The doctor has ordered a m.o.n.g. other things "no fried foods."

Friends say that in a few months he can eat anything he wants.

Mrs. P.N.

Why do you question your doctor's instructions? Or I might better ask why do you pay any attention to them? This is an old story—friends who butt in with their notions when they don't know what they are talking about.

It happens all too frequently to the annoyance of the physician who doesn't give his instructions just for fun.

Unfortunately the consequences sometimes are more than merely annoying to the patient.

Your doctor may want to reduce your husband's weight, or prevent it from increasing. Excess poundage is a strain on the heart, and after a coronary the wise patient, while he remains active as conditions permit, does not put any needless burden on the organ. It has been damaged; it still ticks along loyally; but it shouldn't have pointless effort demanded of it.

Your husband may also have a high cholesterol level. Avoiding fried foods (or animal fats) may prevent further increases in cholesterol.

Parochial Students In Public Schools

Experiment in Pittsburgh With Shared Classes Being Studied

BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
In a number of communities scattered throughout the land, pupils from Roman Catholic parochial schools for years have been attending occasional classes in public schools.

From Connecticut to Oklahoma, public schools here and there have opened their doors to parochial students for classes that require special equipment—for the most part home economics and industrial arts.

The system lately has acquired the designation—"shared time." Now, a Pittsburgh suburb is expanding this idea in what may be the first wholesale sharing of tax-supported schools by public and parochial students.

Some think the outcome may have an eventual impact on the current national debate over federal aid to parochial schools, and perhaps point to a way out of the impasse.

Being Tried

The experiment is being made in Monroeville, about 10 miles east of Pittsburgh. Some 35 boys and girls from the 11th grade of a Roman Catholic high school are spending half of each school day in advanced science classes at the new Forbes Trail Area Technical School.

The rest of the day they study religion, social science, English and related subjects at their parent school, the St. Thomas School in North Braddock Borough.

So far, the program has met with little publicized resistance.

Of the 9,778 "non-public" Pennsylvania school children who used public school facilities part time last school year, 8,793 were located in Alleghany (Pittsburgh) County, 5,744 of them in the city of Pittsburgh.

Normally, the time these students spend in public schools does not exceed an average of 50 minutes a day.

This pattern has shown up in other states, where public schools have offered help to private and parochial schools, unable to buy expensive technical equipment. Generally, the public schools benefit by this through subsidies on a pro-rata basis for the time the "non-public" students spend in the public schools.

In Connecticut, major cities in the state have been open in public schools to students from Catholic schools for some classes for some time, as long as 20 years in Hartford. Industrial arts classes are offered 7th and 8th grade boys, and home economics to 7th and 8th grade girls.

In the upper Midwest, communities have used shared time system for years.

At Bird Island, Minn., for example, the helping hand is extended in both directions. St. Mary's High School and the public high school face each other across a street. The public school gives Catholic students classes in home economics, industrial arts and agriculture. St. Mary's handles Latin for students of both schools.

Each school allows students from the other to attend any additional class that fits his schedule.

Study Band
At Wabasha, Minn., Catholic students study band, shop and agriculture in the public school. In Austin, Minn., Catholic schools have taught Latin and French to public school students, while the public schools have taught auto body work and cosmetology to students from the Catholic schools.

A Minnesota education official said the shared-time plans, while not widespread, were known to state officials, and "can be done if there is space in the schools." The official, T. C. Engum, elementary and secondary education section chief in the Minnesota Department of Education, said: "So far we have not run into any legal obstacles and whatever has been done has been cleared with the attorney general's office."

In Kansas City, Mo., public schools have had shared time arrangements with Catholic parochial schools since 1940. At the end of last school year, there were 289 such boys and 270 such girls in public school industrial and home-making courses.

In Springfield, Mo., St. Agnes High School is carrying out a similar plan for the first time this year in cooperation with a vocational high school.

In Topeka, Kan., Catholic schools for many years have used classrooms of nearby public schools for home economics and manual training.

Have Plan
In Oklahoma, the German community of Okarche has a similar plan. For years Holy Trinity School has sent four classes a day—shop and home economics—to Okarche High School.

The shared time idea has been discussed in other cities including St. Louis and San Francisco.

In Monroeville, some Protestant and Catholic authorities see the experiment there as a possible eventual solution to the conflict over use of government funds to aid parochial schools.

For this reason, the Monroeville test is being watched carefully.

The shared-time idea is based on the principle that a school district's schools are supported by all of its residents, and therefore all of their children should get to use them if they so desire.

There is general agreement in the Pittsburgh area on the constitutionality of the program. The Forbes Trail test may tell church and school authorities whether the plan is workable.

The Rt. Rev. Msgr. John B. McDowell, diocesan superintendent of schools, who was in charge of working out details with the county, commented: "As a Catholic educator I think if it is accepted it can eventually mean we can give formal religious instruction to more children."

Signposts in Life

You're Older Than You Think If You Can Remember All This

BY HAL BOYLE

NEW YORK (AP) — Life has many signposts along the way. You show your age by what you like to recall. And you certainly no longer are a spring chicken if you remember when:

College boys serenaded beneath sorority windows to the tune of a well-strummed mandolin. The ukelele and guitar were still voiceless in the wave of the future.

It was widely believed in some quarters that we had a lot to learn from Benito Mussolini because, after all, hadn't he made Italy's railroads run on time?

Road Safety Helps Spell Happy Christmas Season

Something as commonplace as a traffic sign could mean the difference between a joyous Christmas with loved ones or a pain-wracked holiday in a hospital bed.

With Christmas falling on Tuesday, many businesses will be closed Monday so employees can enjoy a four-day holiday. Hundreds of thousands will go by auto to visit relatives and friends. Many will drive on strange roads and will have to rely on traffic signs to help them along the way.

Danger might lurk on these unfamiliar roads because signs may be missing, damaged or inadequate. Despite their value, signs often are the most neglected part of our highway system, as weathering, vandalism and accidents annually make more than 350,000 highway signs useless.

Experts believe that signs that give motorists insufficient advance warning of what lies ahead are among the greatest problems of safe night driving. The lack of proper night visibility is an important defect in most sign systems throughout the country.

In many areas modern signs are being installed that shine in automobile headlights can be seen hundreds of feet away. These take the guesswork out of nighttime driving and help make a motorist's journey safer and easier.

Regardless of where you drive for the Christmas holiday, traffic signs can be your "Star in the East" to lead you safely to your loved ones. Observe them and obey them.

State Insurance Department to Seek New Laws

Measures Aim at Agents Handling Of Premiums

MADISON — The new legislature will be asked to consider a law that will govern the handling of insurance premium receipts by insurance agents.

The state insurance department says it will ask for a law "defining the fiduciary obligations of insurance agents and prohibiting the commingling of funds held in such capacity with funds of their own, following the model of a law already in effect in the state of New York."

The same legal requirement would apply to the officers of corporate agencies when accounting for premiums received, the regulatory agency commented. It said it has received a large number of complaints about the handling of premiums by agents, from persons paying for insurance, and from underwriting companies.

In other legislation affecting insurance field personnel, the department will propose the examination and licensing of all insurance adjusters, and the standardization of licensing procedure for casualty and life insurance agents.

22,000 Agents
There are now about 22,000 licensed insurance agents in the state, some of them holding several kinds of licenses.

The department explained that the only insurance adjusters operating in the state who are now required to be licensed are those who handle fire losses, and that their requirements for such a license are nominal.

The only requirement now for the fire adjusters is that they are familiar with the reporting requirements of the state fire marshal's office, and that they pay a fee to the state for their registration.

The department said in its annual report that the emphasis upon higher standards in the "production segment" of the insurance industry would make higher standards in the claims adjustment field logical and consistent.

Menon and India

The stories from India of the efforts to remain neutral in a world where there is abundant evil and where men must keep the peace and defend justice and freedom through force of arms continue to be amazing. There is a sadness in this betrayal of innocence. There must also be a suspicion that innocence alone didn't lead India into the trap in the Himalayas.

As reported by Prem Bhatia, resident editor of the Times of India in The Reporter magazine, Nehru's government attempted to play down the military to emphasize the civil supremacy in a nation where the army, under British rule, had been important and honorable. Nehru backed Menon in a dispute in 1959 with army chief of staff General K. S. Thimayya over promotions, and Thimayya subsequently resigned. Appointments and promotions received scant publicity.

This could be an honest attempt to make sure that India did not become a military dictatorship and one in which we are in agreement. But there were other indications of moves to keep the West away and draw in the Communists that had nothing to do with civil supremacy.

The inadequacy of India's defense was kept a deep secret by the government even when pressure from concerned army officers became heavy. Menon was either convinced or the pressure became too great to avoid. But he flatly stated that weapons would come from the West "over my dead body." While his agents were negotiating for the MIGs in Russia, a manufacturer in London offered to set up the industry to construct the French Mirage III fighter but was turned down. The cabinet didn't know about the Russian trip until the press printed the rumors. Even yet, writes Bhatia, the cabinet has not been told that the Indians who went to Russia told Menon that the MIG-21 didn't suit the purposes of India.

Perhaps there was method in Menon's madness. Antagonism between Pakistan and India is very real and of a religious as well as national nature. But two years ago Pakistan suggested a joint defense pact with India only to hear Nehru's scornful answer. "Joint defense against whom?" The best army units have been in Kashmir supposedly to keep the Pakistanis from attacking. And if Menon was so much in favor of peaceful negotiation, why was Goa taken by force?

General Thimayya saw what Communism was when he headed the Indian mission to exchange prisoners in Korea. Did Menon attempt to get rid of all opposition because it favored turning to the West or because it exposed the Communists? Was it a pathological hatred of the former British masters which prompted Menon's prejudice and led Nehru to shut his eyes to evil or was it a triumph of that evil itself?

The answers may never be forthcoming. But whether Menon was a traitor or merely wrong, his influence in India has menaced the very existence of his country.

A Bumper Potato Crop

Wisconsin has had a very good crop this year in spite of the cool, damp summer and an early frost, according to Donald N. McDowell, director of the State Agricultural Department. The small grains were described as "fair to normal" and the corn crop as very good but "hurt badly by early frost." The potato crop was excellent this year, according to McDowell, but even so it probably will not compare on the average with the crop of Myron Mommsen, a potato farmer at Rice Lake, who recently reported a yield of 800 bushels to the acre on his 245-acre farm.

Mommsen says he accomplished this result by following closely instructions he received from the professors operating experiment stations. Mommsen says he had noticed the University of Wisconsin test plots at Hancock and Spooner stations and asked John Schoenemann, a vegetable specialist at the University of Wisconsin, how to go about getting the same results on his farm. Schoenemann set up a complete program and Mommsen followed it step by step.

He set the rows at the regular 36-inch intervals but he planted his potatoes closer together in the rows. The entire farm was planted between April 25 and May 10. Before planting he broadcast 700 pounds of 60 per cent potash to the acre. Then at planting time he added another 800 pounds of fertilizer per acre in bands along the rows.

He used a systemic insecticide which was applied at planting time. This chemical is taken up from the soil by the plant to provide a resistance to insect pests. It displaced sprays for leaf hoppers, aphids and fleabeetles. Mommsen sprayed with a fungicide to prevent blight at 5-day intervals, 15 times while the crop was growing. When rain was lacking he irrigated just before spraying.

He used chemicals to control broad leaved and grassy weeds and only one cultivation was necessary, that to hill up the plants before the vines covered the rows.

Observers in the Rice Lake potato country said they had seldom seen such a crop. Mommsen, who has been raising potatoes since 1940, said that his over-all average during that time was 750 bushels to the acre but that this was the first time he had hit 800. Five or six years ago his average was 500 bushels per acre.

Mommsen's story indicates quite clearly how necessary it is for farmers to use chemicals as fertilizers and for insect control and weed control if they are to get the maximum crop. Mommsen says that every year he gets a little more out of his land and that he has not reached the limit yet.

Supporting the U.N.

Anti - United Nations Americans who complain that the United States alone practically supports the international organization should be gratified to learn that in one area of financial help several other countries are far ahead of the U.S.

The contributions toward technical aid operations are on a voluntary basis rather than as part of regular assessments. The United States has pledged some $50 million this year toward the projects and has promised to jump to $60 million if the other countries pledged at least $40 million more. So far they are running well ahead.

The major contribution per capita comes from Sweden whose $6½ million figures out to about 86c per Swede. Norway has pledged about 76c a person and Denmark 69c. Until this year small but oil rich Kuwait led the field in per capita contributions. The American $50 million averages out to about 33c a citizen.

Without United States contributions to the regular and special agencies of the U.N., it would founder of course. But it's nice to know that other countries are working on the projects financially too.

Persons anxious to see the draft will see by the following official notice that the act of procuring a substitute frees the latter, but leaves the principal still subject to draft:

Sir: In reply to yours of the 27th ult., desiring to be informed of certain questions appertaining to the draft, the Secretary of War wishes me to say that, when a drafted man furnishes a substitute the two (men) change places.

The principal is liable to another draft, if made, just as if he would be if he had not been drafted at first. The substitute is bound by the first draft of the principal, just as if he had been drafted himself.

What are the Chinese Communists after in their mountain border war against India?

The Chinese, under the pretext of repelling Indian aggression, struck across the border Oct. 20 in two areas long in dispute between the two most populous countries in the world.

One is the Ladakh region of northern India, a barren, virtually unpopulated plateau high in the Himalaya Mountains. The Red Chinese claim 15,000 square miles of it.

The other is India's Northeast Frontier Agency, an area of mountains and jungled foothills peopled by semi-civilized hill tribes on the threshold of prosperous, populous (14 million) Assam province.

Indian Prime Minister Nehru himself has told newsmen that the Ladakh region has little strategic value to India. But, says Nehru, the northeast frontier is a different story.

ALMOST CUT OFF

Assam province and the adjoining unorganized territories like the Northeast Frontier Agency are almost cut off from the rest of India by the intrusion of East Pakistan and the little kingdom of Bhutan.

At its narrowest point, only 12 miles of Indian territory separates Pakistan from Bhutan and Nepal.

If the Red Chinese are bent on conquering, not merely the 36,000 square miles of disputed northeast territory, but all of Assam province, then such geographic curiosities are important.

What appears to be the main Communist attack moved down through the mountain passes along the border between the Northeast Frontier and Bhutan. HAVE TWO ALTERNATIVES

Bears Sleep, Don't Hibernate

Winter's Stark Beauty Conceals Bitter Struggle for Survival

WASHINGTON — Henry David Thoreau welcomed "that grand old poem called winter," but then he never had to scratch through ice and snow looking for acorns.

For most animals, winter is more purgatory than poem. They must find adequate shelter, and devise ways to survive the cold that covers water supplies with ice and food with snow, the National Geographic Society says.

Rotifers, however, are different. These microscopic aquatic animals ignore seasonal changes. They can endure long periods of intense cold or heat. Some species remain frozen in arctic and antarctic pools most of the year.

Insects Seek Shelter

Cold-blooded animals, having no control over their body heat, must seek refuges where temperatures stay above freezing. Millions of insects tuck themselves away in rock crevices, beneath dead leaves, or under bark.

The cecropia moth spins itself a snug vacuum-bottle cocoon — with a double wall and an air space between for insulation. The female tent caterpillar lays eggs on a twig, then covers them with a protective shellac.

Fish swim beneath ice in water that remains only a few degrees above freezing. A frog may spend the winter in soft mud at the bottom of a pond.

Some warm-blooded mammals hibernate. True hibernation is not merely a deep sleep but a state of suspended animation that is, in effect, a vacation from life.

The flame of life burns so low that a hibernating hedgehog survived a 22-minute dunking in water. A dormouse, which curls into a furry ball and is cold to the touch, can be rolled across a table without awakening. One dormouse slept continuously for six months and 23 days.

Contrary to popular beliefs, bears do not hibernate. But they sleep deeply, drawing on fat reserves to keep them alive.

Squirrels store food in the fall for a snowy day. Zoologists disagree whether squirrels remember where their caches are or sniff them out. In any case, a gray squirrel doesn't waste energy looking for buried acorns on a really cold day. He stays curled up in a cozy tree nest.

The red squirrel is not content with mere acorns. He gathers mushrooms, dries them on tree branches, and caches them in a dry place. Comes winter, he dines royally.

Monroe Doctrine Dead And the U. S. Killed It

Editor, Post-Crescent:

The Friday, Nov. 16, edition of the Post-Crescent contained a letter in response to a letter written the previous week with regard to the American action in the Cuban crisis. The first letter stated that the quarantine of Cuba is criminal, and without justification. The rebuttal, that is the letter published Nov. 16, stated that the United States does have a right, an "ethical justification," to quarantine Cuba because the Soviet Union has, to some extent, colonized Cuba. Mr. Rausch, the author of the letter, states that because of that fact, the United States can take action against Cuba with assurance of being justified by the Monroe Doctrine.

Although I do not agree with the view that the United States' action on Cuba is criminal, I do feel that Mr. Rausch's justification for the quarantine is equally naive. The idea that the Monroe Doctrine gives the United States the right to quarantine Cuba is sheer hypocrisy. The Monroe Doctrine is dead, and has been so since at least 1919.

Why is the Monroe Doctrine dead? Who killed it? The Monroe Doctrine was killed by the United States itself. The Monroe Doctrine states that the policy of the United States in regard to Europe is "... not to interfere in the internal concerns of any of its powers. ..." Yet, in 1919, during the Russian Civil War, the United States sent troops into Russia to help the so-called "White" forces, who were fighting the "Reds." No one can deny that this action constitutes interference in the internal concerns of a European nation. Thus, the Monroe Doctrine is dead, and it is the United States who has killed it.

I hope it is not construed that I believe that our quarantine is wrong. I back President Kennedy all the way. I only mean to say that the Monroe Doctrine cannot be used to justify our actions. We might as well realize that the United States herself has struck it down, and it cannot rise again.

Teen-Agers Aid Toupee Comeback

From The Tuscaloosa (Ala.) News

Everyone knows that Bing Crosby, Fred Astaire and Gene Kelly wear wigs. Nearly everyone suspects that certain beautiful TV personalities get help from the manufacturer as well as from the hairdresser.

Wigs have long had their place in the theatre. There was a time when they were popular in society's formal moments, and the custom is perpetuated still in high places. But the fashion is now moving into the office, street — and to the beach. And it's being made popular by the young set.

One Canadian manufacturer estimates that about 5,000 wigs were sold here last year. He prophesied that in the mounting wave of popularity 25,000 a year may be sold.

One Ottawa saleswoman explained the fad among the young set to a reporter recently. "Young people have three reasons for buying a wig," she said. "Either they like it for going out after they have been swimming; they don't want to have to spend time fixing their own hair, or they buy one for a joke."

How father must split his sides when seventeen-year-old Betty comes home wearing a $150 moss green for a joke. How the boyfriend must be thrilled, when a dark-haired swimming companion bursts from the beach-house transformed into a beautifully coiffured platinum blonde, ready for an expensive dinner in a "swish" restaurant, but still dripping slightly from behind the ears.

Man Treated After Ride in Parachute

NORFOLK, Va. (AP) — Charles R. Nohava, 13, took out a war surplus parachute he had bought to let it fill up in the breeze. A gust of 30 to 35 miles per hour caught it and lifted him 20 feet to the roof of his house, then dragged him into electric power lines where he hung suspended before dropping to the ground. He was treated for electric shock in the Naval Hospital at Portsmouth.

Between Cuba and Asia, Communism is split — the Indian gives and the India takers.

A White House committee urges a $10 billion tax cut. It's the new fiscal theory: No sense of both the people and the Government being broke at the same time.

Khrushchev says Communism should imitate the better points of capitalism. Well, one of our best points is that we're no good at building walls.

Republican Chairman Miller says the party is stronger than before the election. Good thing too, considering it'll have to pull itself up by its own bootstraps.

Break in Cuban Crisis Favors Reds

U. S. Concession Not to Invade Gives Soviets Edge

BY DAVID LAWRENCE

WASHINGTON — The Cuban problem will drag along for months, if not years. On balance, today the Soviets are ahead of the game.

They have won a beachhead in Cuba, which now has become a full-fledged member of the Communist bloc. It's the first conquest by the communists in this hemisphere.

Moscow played a crafty game and got the prize it wanted—a potential military base within 90 miles of the United States.

Moscow put offensive weapons into Cuba. Withdrawal now doesn't mean they cannot be secretly replaced later.

Moscow got away without a public denunciation of her course in terms of world policy. Even the allies of the United States, while sympathizing with this country's position, took no steps to condemn the Soviets before the whole world for having aimed an aggressive military action against the American people.

Moscow has elicited in behalf of Castro a public pledge from the President of the United States that America's military forces will not invade Cuba. This promise has been given notwithstanding the historic policy of the United States—as enunciated in the Monroe Doctrine—that no European power will be permitted to establish its "system" in any country in this hemisphere.

Moscow is free to render to Cuba any aid of a military nature—and the United States acquiesces—provided only that the weapons are for "defensive" purposes. A lieutenant general of the U. S. Army, who served in World War II in Europe and now is retired, wrote this correspondent the other day about the buildup of "defensive" arms in Cuba. He says:

Writes Letter

"How naive can the American people get? A universal and basic principle of war is that 'the best defense is an effective offense.' Name any offensive weapon from flame-thrower to 'hardened' Atlas and it could be described as a defensive weapon ad infinitum of the mass retaliatory power of the United States today is considered by our government and the people as 'defensive,' not offensive."

This undoubtedly reflects the viewpoint of many a military officer in the Pentagon who has been forbidden to talk to the press.

It is true that President Kennedy is asking for and still hopes some day to get on-the-site inspection in Cuba to determine whether the missiles and the strategic bombers have been withdrawn. But already the President has made a concession by affirming that he merely wants "offensive" weapons removed. The haggling as to what constitutes "defensive" or "offensive" weapons will go on for a long, long time.

Meanwhile, Castro is assured against any military act by the United States to liberate the people of Cuba. Even the Cuban exiles are in an anomalous position now, for they don't know whether, if they try to recover control of their native land, the United States may find itself committed by President Kennedy's pledge of "no invasion" to prevent any expedition directed toward Cuba not only from the territory of this country but from any Latin-American country.

Before the missile incident, Castro had no such protection. It was feared by him that the "Bay of Pigs" invasion might be repeated. The Russians now have secured for him a pledge against this from the United States. Their clever strategy in setting up missiles and then withdrawing them in exchange for American assurances of no invasion has paid off.

Won't Give Up

The President, in his press conference on Tuesday, obliterated the prospect of any military aid to the Cuban people to regain their independence. He merely said the United States "will not abandon our purpose and hope that the Cuban people some day may be truly free." He then added quickly: "but these policies are very different from any intent to launch a military invasion of the island."

Highway Deaths Hiked to 848

BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

The death of a Walworth County youth early today brought the Wisconsin highway toll for the Thanksgiving day weekend to seven and the total for the year to 848, compared with 812 on this date in 1961.

Terrance Rasmussen, 18, of rural Whitewater was killed shortly after midnight when a car he was driving struck a tree after leaving Angle Road about three and a half miles south of Whitewater.

Joseph L. Polvika, 54, of Friendship died Friday when his car overturned on Adams County Highway J about four miles east of friendship.

David Peterson, 6, who lived in Janesville with his grandmother, Mrs. Harold Rusch, was killed Friday when run over by the rear dual wheels of a 10-ton cattle truck. The driver told police David and a companion dashed in front of the truck. The other boy was not hurt.

ing advantage of the Chinese cease-fire to bolster their military strength.

U. S. and British military aid missions here continued their appraisals of India's long-range military needs.

Nehru again predicted a long struggle with Red China as the Himalayan fronts remained quiet for the third day under the cease-fire.

'Long Struggle'

In a message addressed to a youth rally Friday, Nehru warned his nation of "a long struggle and a difficult one, and we must not imagine that the struggle will be over soon because of various diplomatic moves."

The reference to various diplomatic moves presumably included the Peking offer, under which both sides would pull back 12 miles from what China calls the actual control line. If India agreed to the pullback, it would have to give up 12,000 square miles it claims in Ladakh on the northwestern frontier.

But Nehru said India "may seek clarification of certain aspects" of the Chinese offer.

Red China indicated it wanted no stalling. A New China News Agency broadcast quoted Chen Yi, Chinese deputy premier and foreign minister, as saying he hoped India would reply quickly and positively.

A Peking offer to India's angry neighbor, Pakistan, to enter into a mutual nonaggression pact was reported from Rawalpindi where the Pakistani parliament has been in an emergency session debating about the British and American arms being rushed to India.

same press conference said to the President that there "appeared to be an implication that possibly you would be willing to guarantee Castro against any and all enemies anywhere." But the President dodged a direct answer and merely said that the statement he had made, and which is quoted above, "describes very clearly what the policy of the government is in regard to 'no invasion.'"

So the Cuban exiles who have been hoping for some kind of help in the United States to enable them to take military measures to rescue their fellow countrymen in Cuba now find themselves checkmated.

No satisfactory way, moreover, has been agreed upon to make sure that all the so-called "offensive" weapons will have been removed. Castro is being given ample time to hide them. The Washington "Post," often a supporter of administration policies, has just said:

"Verification of the kind contemplated in the exchange of letters between the President and Premier Khrushchev has not been accomplished and safeguards against the future introduction of offensive weapons have not been devised. These are matters of the utmost importance to this country and the execution of the American part of the bargain cannot be expected as long as these defects persist."

So, for the time being anyway, Castro and Khrushchev are ahead of the game while the American people—frightened by the missile threat which was part of a phony strategy of deception in the first place—now are being told only that they have been saved from a terrible war and that compromises and concessions were necessary.

Amish Parents Plan Courtroom Fight on Schools

INDEPENDENCE, Iowa (AP) — Ten Amish parents who say their children don't need well-educated teachers because they are preparing only for a "simple farm life" face a court battle here today.

The parents have been charged with failure to send their children to schools with certified teachers. State law says children under 16 must be taught by certified teachers. Certificates now require a college degree.

Residents of an Amish community near this northeast Iowa town want to continue sending their children to their two Amish schools, where teachers have only eighth-grade educations.

"Why should we hire a college-trained person to teach when all we want is an eighth-grade education?" asked Andrew Kaufman, 56, who has two children in the schools.

17 Killed as Plane Crashes, Probe Likely

Federal Aviation Agency, United and Airline Pilots Association representatives met today to organize their investigation.

The crash of the four-engine turbo-prop airliner occurred in bright sunshine about 10 miles southwest of Baltimore. Ed Slattery of the CAB said, "We are concerned because there was no weather connected with the crash."

Another piece in the puzzle was the report from the FAA that the Viscount's veteran pilot, Capt. Milton J. Balog, 39, apparently had no hint of approaching tragedy.

The FAA said radio communications with the plane as it prepared to land at Washington shortly after noon Friday were entirely routine. The FAA said Balog had acknowledged instructions only three minutes before the Viscount, capable of carrying 44 passengers, disappeared from the radar scope monitoring its approach.

Witnesses said the plane suddenly nosed sharply into wooded farmland owned by Clark Gaither in Howard County. The descent of the airplane was so steep that it cut only a small swath through the hardwood forest.

Reynolds May Have Chance To Veto Tax

of their tone indicated that there was probably an informal count of heads on the issue, although they announced that the Republican senators would meet again at Wisconsin Rapids on December 1, and the Republican assemblymen at Madison on Nov. 30 for organization purposes.

Panzer and Haase emphasized a point that will make it difficult for Reynolds to budge the Republicans from their sales tax position — the fact that the pro-sales tax legislative candidates generally got good margins in their elections this fall, while Reynolds with his absolute opposition to such tax revision came through with the tiniest margin in more than 30 years.

"I was re-elected by a better majority than he was," said Panzer, who has been a figure in legislative councils for nearly 30 years.

"I won and I made the sales tax the clear cut issue," echoed Haase.

On the basis of the governor-elect's unqualified pre-election commitments and the Republican legislative record reinforced by the Panzer-Haase declaration Friday, this is the way the winter political outlook at the capitol shapes up:

Reynolds will submit a budget recommendation, tied to higher personal income taxes as a financial mechanism. The Republican legislators will reject it, and return to him in its stead a budget financing increased spending through a general sales tax. Reynolds will veto it, and there will result the kind of a stalemate that held up the 1961 legislature for months, established a new record for duration, and finally ended in an uneasy compromise in the form of higher income taxes and a modified sales tax act.

No Credit Refund

Haase indicated that the Republican sales tax effort in the new session will discard the credit refund scheme for low income earners upon which the campaign of Philip Kuehn, the Republican nominee for governor, floundered during the fall, and will substitute broad exemptions for such necessities as food and clothing. Such ameliorative devices will be more clearly understood by the public, he said.

Haase was more careful than Panzer in defining the time limit for the evolution of Reynolds' finance program, and said that the size of the new state budget will relate to the taxing methods agreed upon. A higher budget is more likely if there is a sales tax agreed upon to finance it, he speculated. Panzer said the sales tax would also be written to provide "decent relief for real and personal properly taxpayers."

State Youth 1st In Judging at Livestock Show

CHICAGO (AP) — Terrill Rule of Mineral Point led Wisconsin entrants Friday, the first day of judging in the 63rd International Live Stock Exposition, earning the only first place taken by the Badger-state delegation.

Other Wisconsin entrants took three seconds and five thirds.

Rule took his first with a short horn senior calf.

Mary Graber, 17, also of Mineral Point, was third in the reserve grand champion beef cattle competition, and Elynn Richards, 16, of Lodi, took second places in both light and heavy wether lambs. The other second was taken by Olson's Justamere Farm, Stoughton, with an Angus senior calf.

Other third place winners were, in quality meat competition, Elmer A. St. Mary, Lourdes Cagers Lose to Milwaukee Quints

Teams Change Foes, Move to Zephyr Gym for Action Tonight

OSHKOSH — A pair of Milwaukee teams, St. Benedict and Pius XI, proved poor guests here Friday night and soundly spanked their Fox River Valley Catholic Conference hosts, Menasha St. Mary and Oshkosh Lourdes, 75-37 and 62-32, respectively, in non-loop affairs.

The Zephyrs stayed even with St. Benedict for one quarter but then faded before the taller pacers.

The second half of the double bill was no contest as the rangy Popes outclassed an inexperienced Lourdes five. The loss was expensive for the Knights as center Bob Celichowski twisted his knee and will miss at least tonight's contest.

Switch Foes
The teams switch opponents tonight with the action moving to the Zephyrs home court. St. Mary tangles with Pius in the nightcap while Lourdes faces St. Benedict at 7 p.m.

The Pacers scored eight straight points early in the second quarter to erase a 19-18 St. Mary lead and were never headed. The Zephyrs rallied to within five points early in the final period but ran out of gas.

St. Benedict went the entire distance with the starting five and four of the players hit for double figures with big Tom Campbell leading the way with 28 points.

Changes Hands
The first quarter was a nip-and-tuck affair with the lead changing hands twice and the score tied three times. Tom Johnson scored eight of his 12 points in the initial period as St. Mary enjoyed a 15-10 lead at one point.

After exchanging two-pointers to start the second quarter, the Pacers went ahead to stay on a layup by Bob Johnson. At half-time they had built up the margin to 10 points, 39-29.

Gene Patzner and John Timm cut St. Benedict's lead at the end of the third period to 7 points, 51-44, with three baskets and a free throw in the final 90 seconds.

Mike Rausch scored to open the final period and St. Mary was within five points but the roof was shortly to fall in.

St. Benedict restored its 10 points lead and the teams traded baskets until the final two minutes when, with the Pacers ahead, 67-57, St. Benedict scored eight straight points to win going away.

John Timm led the St. Mary effort with 16 points, 12 of them in the second half.

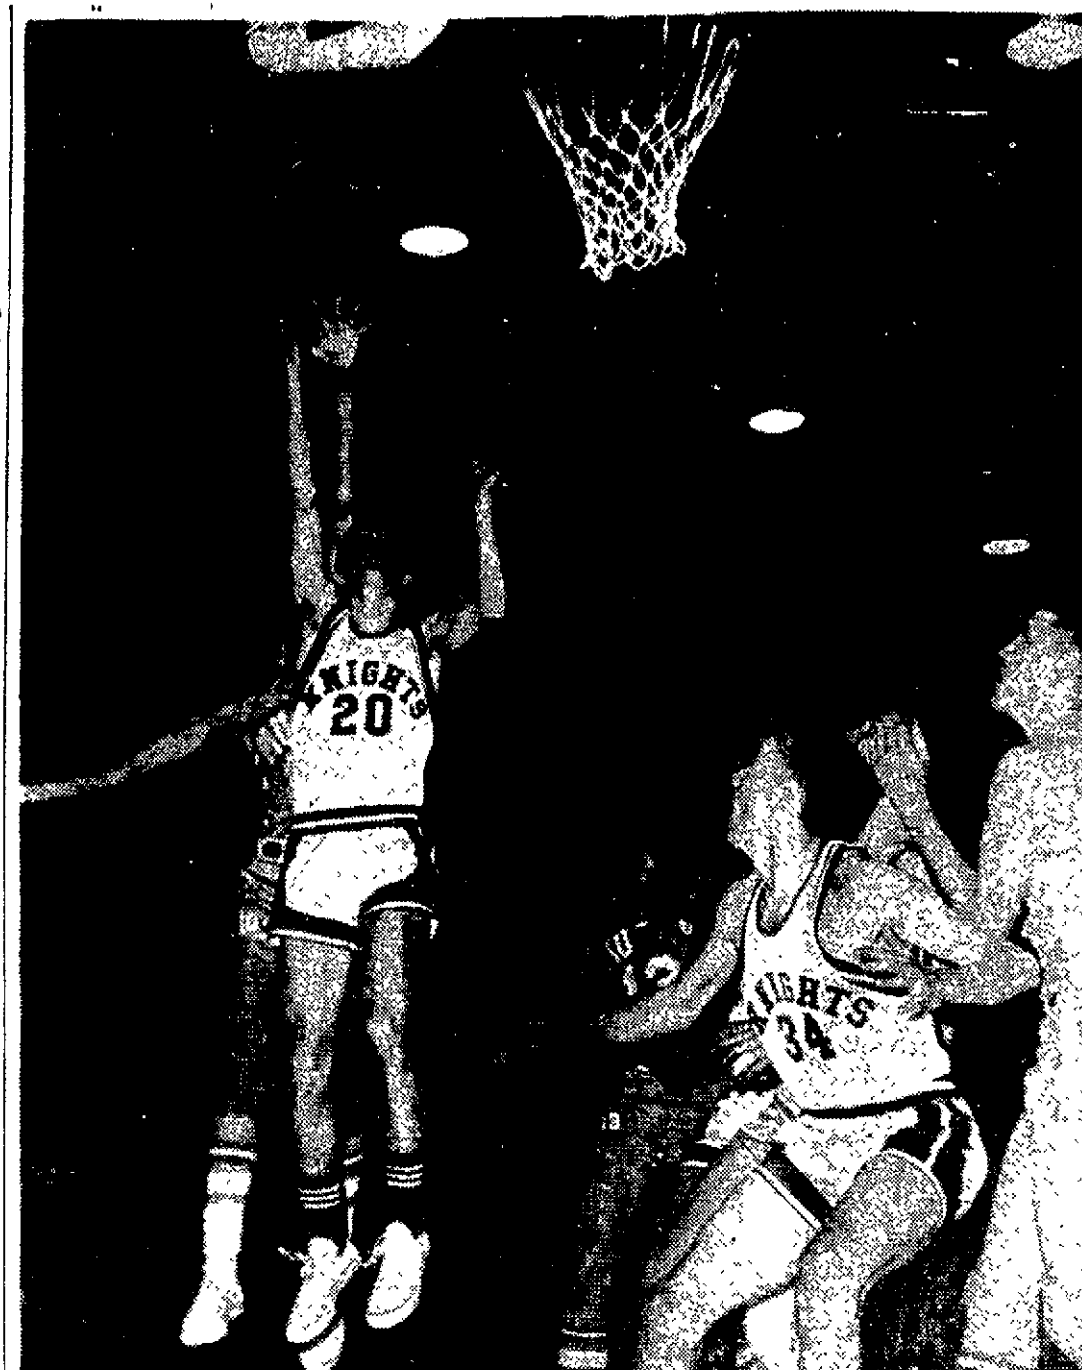

The Lourdes Knights suffered a scoring drought in the first quarter and they never recovered. The Popes ran up a 10-0 lead before the Knights got on the scoreboard with a free throw by Steve Schumert with 55 seconds left in the period.

The tall Pius team completely dominated the boards and permitted Lourdes only two offensive rebounds — both by Celichowski in the first quarter before he was injured.

Pius ran its margin to 20-4 early in the second quarter as the cold Knights could not find the range. Lourdes shot only 21 per cent from the floor for the game.

Whitewater Places 8 on All-Loop Team

Oshkosh State Has Two Gridders On Defensive Unit

MADISON (AP) — Whitewater, the State College Conference football champion, placed eight men on the 44-member all-conference team announced Friday by league coaches.

The coaches divided the conference into north and south divisions and named both offensive and defensive units. Superior, runnerup to Whitewater, placed seven players on the squad.

Superior tackle Gerry Schweiger and Platteville guard Frank Bins were named to both the offensive and defensive team.

Offensive team selections, with north division candidates listed first:

Ends: Jerry Gilbertsen, La Crosse; Bob Ott, Stout; Ron Anton, Whitewater, and Dave Neumier, Stevens Point.

Tackles: Gerry Schweiger, Superior; John Borst, Eau Claire;

9 Thoroughbreds Lost In Louisville Blaze

LOUISVILLE, Ky. (AP) — Nine of Louisville hotel man J. Graham Brown's thoroughbreds, including a colt sired by former Kentucky Derby winner Citation, perished Friday when fire swept through a barn at Churchill Downs.

Nine other yearlings were led to safety but two and possibly four may have to be destroyed because of injuries. The fire, it was thought, might have been started by an exploding room heater.

The wife and 5-year-old daughter of trainer Arthur Perossier were among six persons who escaped after Perossier sounded the alarm. His family had spent Thanksgiving with the trainer and remained overnight in his quarters at the barn.

Brown was unable to estimate his loss but said the animals were

ORLANDO, Fla. (AP) — Milwaukee's Bobby Brue shot a second straight 76 Friday and failed to survive the halfway cutoff in the Orlando Open Golf Tournament.

Paid $6,000

Brown paid $6,000 for the Citation colt at the Kennel and sales last summer. Among the others lost was a $12,500 colt by Traffic Judge out of Party Gossip.

All presumably died of suffocation.

Perossier, a trainer for Brown for a decade, and a groom were starting to feed the horses when the fire broke out. The trainer and others led them to safety.

Approximately 100 firemen worked in 25-28 degree weather. Water froze on the ground around the barn.

One of the worst track fires here occurred in October 1952, when 68 thoroughbreds valued at $250,000 died in a barn at the old Douglas Park track. An exercise boy later was sentenced to five years in prison for arson in connection with the case.

Two fires struck about 33 hours apart at the Downs in October 1959, and caused $32,000 damage. Two weeks after the 1944 Derby, eight thoroughbreds and a Shetland pony were lost in a $35,000 blaze at the track.

Ram Lineup Juggled Again, Gabriel Will Start at QB

LOS ANGELES (AP)—The Los Angeles Rams, juggling their lineup in search of a National Football League victory, gave the troops another shake up Friday and Roman Gabriel popped up as quarterback.

The Rams have won one, lost nine.

Coach Harland Svare tabbed rookie Gabriel to start Sunday against the Vikings in Minnesota. Svare also named halfback Jon Arnett to start at left end.

The 225-pound, 6-foot-4 Gabriel is the Rams' third try for a winning quarterback. Svare sent an-

'Have No Excuses,' Green Bay's Jerry Kramer Reflects After Loss

'Weren't Set,' He Claims Concerning Missed Field Goal

GREEN BAY (AP)—"We were sailing along too easily...Now we know we can get the stuffs kicked out of us...We have no excuses."

These were the comments of Green Bay Packers guard Jerry Kramer as he rehearsed Friday the 26-14 licking handed the defending National Football League champions by the Lions in Detroit on Thanksgiving Day.

The defeat broke the Packers' string of victories for the current season at 10 and their list of conquests dating back to last season, and including exhibitions, at 18. But even with the loss, the Packers remain first with a 10 and 1 record as they seek their third straight Western Division title.

This is a weekend of rest for the Packers while the rest of the league will continue to clang and bang on Sunday. Green Bay makes its next start in Milwaukee Dec. 2 against the Los Angeles Rams.

Just Whipped
"We were just whipped," Kramer said. "I don't want to take anything away from the Lions. They played a magnificent game. But I guess we were due for one. Every team we've played has been laying for us."

"The Lions had tremendous desire," said Kramer. "They were completely dedicated," and they made it pay off making the Packers look wretched as the Detroit defense spent most of the game in the Green Bay backfield, demolishing Packer plays before they ever had a chance to take form.

An example was Kramer's failure on a field goal attempt from the Detroit 31 late in the second quarter.

"We weren't set when the ball was centered," Kramer said.

Xavier Wins, 70-60 Over Messmer '5

Scoring Bursts in Second Half Bring Hawk Victory; Whitlinger Scores 39 Points

WHITEFISH BAY — Two second half scoring bursts boosted Xavier on to a 70-60 victory over Messmer in the first game of a prep doubleheader here Friday night.

DePere Abbot Pennings was defeated, 44-42, by Whitefish Bay Dominican in the second game of the twinbill. Pennings and Xavier will switch foes tonight.

The Hawks broke from a 30 all tie at halftime to grab a 38-30 lead but Messmer, led by a 6-4 center Jack Gonyo, came back to tie the count at 39 all. Gonyo pumped in 20 points for the Milwaukee Catholic Conference school.

Pull Away
Xavier went on another scoring push and slowly pulled away. Kip Whitlinger connected for 39 points on 12 baskets and 15 of 15 free throws. Whitlinger sank 12 of 26 shots from the floor.

The two teams were nearly even as far as shooting percentages were concerned. Xavier shot 40.7 per cent with 24 baskets on 59 shots. Messmer hit 38.3 per cent on 23 of 60 attempts. Xavier made 22 of 27 free throws while Messmer made 14 of 19.

Mina to Face Henry Hank In TV Clash

Peruvian Fighter Has Designs on Bout With Johnson

NEW YORK (AP) — Mauro Mina, the South American light-heavyweight from Lima, Peru, hopes to move on to a world title fight with Harold Johnson if he can take care of Henry Hank of Detroit Saturday night in Madison Square Garden.

Hank, primarily a middleweight, has filed notice that he wants to fight Dick Tiger of Nigeria for his newly-won middleweight championship.

The 10-round match is scheduled for 10 p.m., EST, with network (ABC) television coverage. Two judges and a referee will score it by rounds, using a supplementary point-system in case the rounds are even.

Was Only 158
Mina expects to weigh about 175 pounds and Hank will be about 170. Hank was only 158½ last March when he lost to Tiger on a decision in Miami.

The South American, making his debut in the United States, has a 41-2-1 record that includes 21 knockouts. Hank's record is 53-16-3 with 36 knockouts.

About 300 Peruvians have come from Lima for the fight. Mina is tremendously popular in Peru where he draws crowds of 30,000 fans. In his last outing he whipped Eddie Cotton of Seattle and earned No. 1 ranking as a challenger for Johnson.

Negotiations for a Mina-Johnson title match are expected to start after the fight. The Garden would like to run the show either in New York or elsewhere along the TV circuit. A Lima promoter wants to put it on in Peru. Johnson undoubtedly will go where the most money is offered.

Colts Activate Yohn, Rookie Linebacker

BALTIMORE (AP)—The Baltimore Colts put Don Thompson, defensive end, on the National Football League injured reserve list Friday and activated Dave Yohn, a rookie from Gettysburg College.

Yohn, a 220-pound linebacker, had been cut before the season started, but has kept in shape practicing with the Colts.

Thompson, signed as a free agent after graduation from Richmond, fractured an elbow in last Sunday's game at Green Bay.

Kramer joined other Packers in declaring the team will lose little sleep because of the broken victory string. Asked how he felt about it, Kramer said. "I think Norm Masters gave the best answer to that. He said, 'What team wouldn't settle for a 10 and 1 record at this time.'"

And how did Kramer feel about the Lions who used the victory to make good a considerable amount of boasting?
"I hope they win the rest of the way. I'd love to see them finish second with a 12 and 2 record."

Carter Builds Up Big Lead In Pin Meet

Marion Ladewig Setting Pace for Women Keglers

CHICAGO (AP)—Two old pros Don Carter of St. Louis and Marion Ladewig of Grand Rapids, Mich., have built up commanding leads as the sixth annual $48,000 World's Invitational Bowling Tournament heads into the home stretch.

Carter, 4-time champion of the event, moved more than 8 points ahead of Ray Bluth of St. Louis Friday night as the men completed the 10th of the scheduled 16, 4-game matches in the second day of final clashes.

Carter has a 27-13 record and has bowled over 8,893 pins for an average of almost 225 per game. The 36-year-old Carter survived a defeat by Jim St. John in the 10th round and increased his lead over Bluth, the 1961 runner-up.

Carter has a point total of 206.23. Bluth has 198.19 and Joe Joseph of Lansing, Mich., 195.21.

Point System
Petersen points, the basis of choosing the winner, are awarded on the basis of one point for each game won and an additional point for every 50 pins knocked down.

Highs Friday were Joseph's 259 game and 976 series and a 257 game and 695 series by Mrs. Ladewig.

Mrs. Ladewig, the champion in 1957 and 1960, built up a big lead over teen-ager Judy Audsley of Kansas City.

Mrs. Ladewig faltered in her 11th round match against Joan Holm of Chicago and lost two games. But she upped her point total to 155.13, a seven-plus lead over 18-year-old Miss Audsley, who had a 147.47.

With 11 of the women's scheduled 16 3-game matches completed, Mrs. Ladewig is the only one averaging over 200. She has a 202 average for 33 of the scheduled 48 games.

The field of 16 men and 16 women enter the third day of final matches today and the tournament, offering $7,500 first prize, will conclude Sunday.

Bart Starr Will Give Talk at St. John Fete

LITTLE CHUTE — Green Bay Packer quarterback Bart Starr will be the guest speaker at the annual banquet Wednesday for St. John High School athletes.

The fete, sponsored by the Athletic Association, will be held at the grade school auditorium at 6 p.m.

Former Packer great and Prentiss High School football mentor, Ted Fritsch, will be the master of ceremonies. Letter awards will be presented to members of the football team and a trophy will be presented to the outstanding senior athlete.

Tickets are available at local business places or from association officers.

Bowl Bid for Miami Despite 29-7 Loss To Northwestern

Gotham Bowl Invites Losers To Dec. 15 Game

By GENE PLOWDEN
MIAMI, Fla. (AP)—If the University of Miami Hurricanes accept today an invitation to play in New York's Gotham Bowl Dec. 15, they can thank George Mirra for putting them there.
The 175-pound junior quarterback from Key West was brilliant, even in Miami's worst defeat in the Orange Bowl since 1953 as powerful Northwestern of the Big Ten stifled the Hurricanes, 29-7, Friday night.
Mirra completed 11 of 25 pass attempts for 122 yards and gained 54 yards rushing with Wildcats swarming all over him.
"New York people know about Mirra," said Bob Curran, head of the Gotham Bowl. "He's the type of player they want to see. We have a chance to get Missouri as Miami's opponent."
Maybe Oregon State
There's also the prospect of bringing in Oregon State, who has a great left-handed passer in Terry Baker. All the New York fans want is a show."

French Horse Reported Sold For $672,000

LONDON (AP) — Match 2nd, French winner of the Washington, D.C. International horse race at Laurel Park, Md., was sold to a British stud Friday for $672,000.
The British Bloodstock Agency bought the horse on behalf of Englishman Herbert Blagrove against an American offer of $95,600. The name of the American trying to get the French horse was not disclosed.
Match 2nd's victory at Laurel made him the biggest stakes winner in Europe. He collected $364,660 in a brilliant racing career. The previous European high of $300,062 was earned by Ballymoss.
"Forty shares at $16,800 apiece puts a valuation of $672,000 on the horse, and Herbert Blagrove obtained a three quarters share in him in the face of a firm American offer," commented the London Sporting Life, Britain's horse racing daily newspaper.
Francis Dupre, Match 2nd's owner, reportedly retained 10 of the stud shares.
"It is a more major operation than the last one on Oct. 23," the spokesman said.
Moss received the eye injury in a near fatal crash in a race at Goodwood last April.

Moss Will Undergo Another Eye Operation

LONDON (AP) — Racing driver Stirling Moss will undergo another eye operation at the end of this month, a spokesman at his London office said Friday.
"It is a more major operation than the last one on Oct. 23," the spokesman said.
Moss received the eye injury in a near fatal crash in a race at Goodwood last April.

It doesn't seem likely, but New York's lowly, oft-beaten Knicks are making their presence felt in the Eastern Division race in the National Basketball Association.
Thanks to New York, the Boston Celtics today are back in their accustomed spot atop the division standings. The Celtics, out of the top spot for one day, regained the lead with a 116-104 victory over Chicago Friday night.
But they had to have an assist from the last-place Knicks to do it. New York obliged by dropping Syracuse, now in second place, 116-110. It was the Knicks' third straight victory and their first of the season over an Eastern team.
St. Louis and Los Angeles remained in a tie for first in the West, the Hawks bombing Detroit 121-93 and Los Angeles outlasting San Francisco 129-124.

2 Scoring Bursts
The Knicks used two scoring bursts to surprise Syracuse. They outscored the Nats 18-4 in the first one, in the third period, taking a 78-71 lead. A 8-point burst came in the final period after the Nats had rallied to within one point.
Willie Naulls had 25 points and Richie Gnerin 22 for the winners. While Johnny Kerr and Dave Gamboe paced the Nats with 17 each.
Bob Cousy keyed a late Boston rally that secured the decision against Chicago at Providence. The Zephyrs had closed to within three points with four minutes to go when Cousy tossed in three straight baskets. Bill Russell added two more seconds later to put it out of reach.
Chicago rookie Terry Dischinger led the scorers with 32 points and Tom Sanders had 29 for Boston.
Hit 13 of 17
St. Louis staged a third period blitz, hitting 13 of 17 shots at one place, in its come-from-behind effort against Detroit. The Pistons had a 52-37 lead with two minutes left in the first half, but the Hawks third period explosion gave them an 82-71 margin and they coasted in.
Bob Pettit had 35 points for St. Louis, Bailey Howell 28 for Detroit.

Syndicate Which Purchased Braves Seeks Partners

MILWAUKEE (AP)—The group which purchased the Milwaukee Braves last week is interested in having responsible Milwaukee and Wisconsin persons as future partners.
A syndicate of six Chicago area men with business or residential connections in Wisconsin joined club president John McHale in buying the Braves from Lou Perini of Boston for about $5.5 million.
McHale said Thursday he thought two or three Milwaukeeans and perhaps one or two "right kind" of men out in the state would be ideal as a start. He repeated there were no plans for selling stock in the club "over the counter."
McHale said, "We are interested in getting the right kind of men—men in Milwaukee and possibly other Wisconsin cities who not only are interested in baseball but who have the right kind of influence and connections."

Harriet Fulton Fires 551 Set In Women's Loop

Harriet Fulton slammed a 195 game and a 551 series to lead the Five by Eight League at Hahn's Lanes recently.
Shirley Seehafer shared the individual game honors with a 195 count for the only other honor score in the league. Priche Insurance (19½-13½) holds the lead by a half-game margin.
Clara Streck smacked a 204 game and 543 series to pace the Women's Classic League at the 41 Bowl.
Marc's Big Boy (24-9) leads the league by 5½ games. Other honor scores included Jean Holford, 190; Sally Hardy, 526, and Marion Horn, 537.
Anna Knaus had a 211 singleton and Jean Oltman rolled a 205 line and 518 series to share honors in the Wednesday afternoon Coffee League at the 41 Bowl.

Rene Schumacher Posts 531 Set

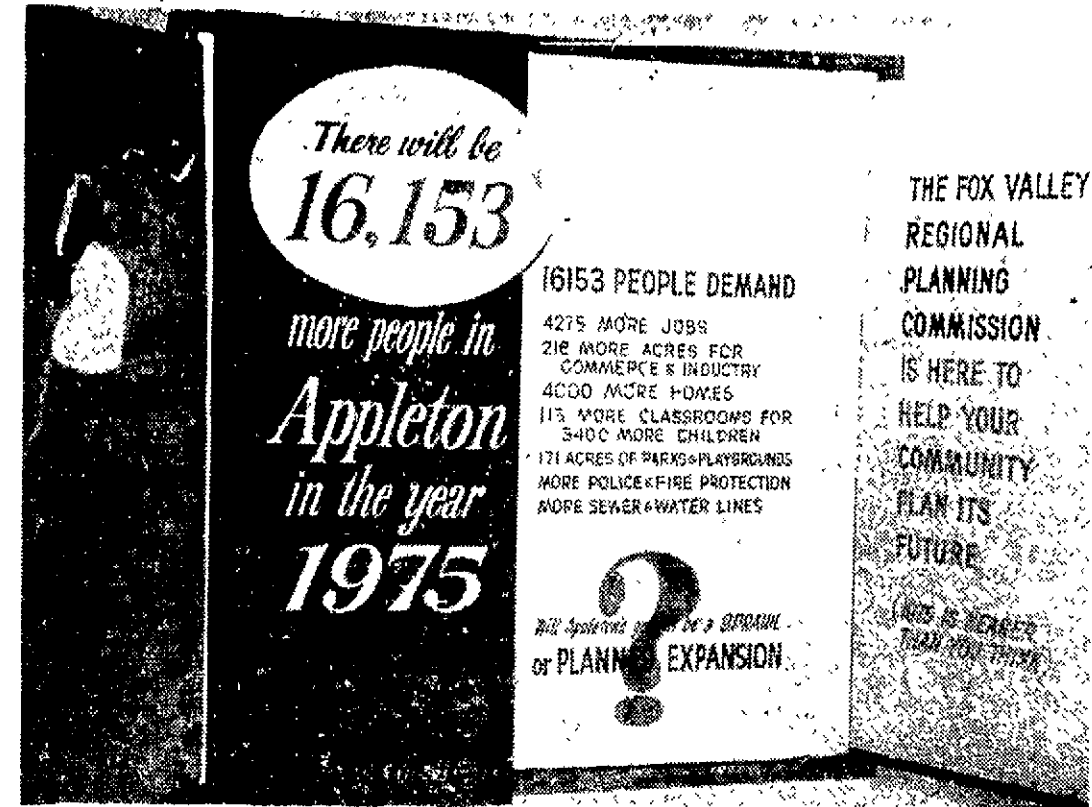

Sally Ebben slammed a 191 game and Rene Schumacher posted a 531 series to pace the Elks Ladies League in the latest round of action.
The Daquiris (22½-7½) lead the league by 2½ games.
No honor scores were recorded in the American Ladies League at the 41 Bowl. The Cigarette Service team (23-10) is in first place with a 2-game lead over Scheiter's Tap.

Something New at City Hall Friday is this display of the Fox Valley Regional Planning Commission, which projected Appleton's expansive future to the year 1975. (Post-Crescent Photo)

A Glimpse at 1975

Appleton's Growing Pains Charted by Regional Commission

Appleton, which already has quite a few symptoms, is going to continue to have growing pains.

In fact, by 1975 it is predicted there will be 16,153 more people residing in this city.

A glimpse into the future is provided by the Fox Valley Regional Planning Commission, which has erected a display on the first floor of the city hall building.

It's not known what kind of a crystal ball the planners used in probing into the next 12 years, but they have come up with some interesting statistics.

The City of Appleton's population, according to the 1960 census, is 48,411.

"1975 is nearer than you think," says the catchy display, which also points out, "The Fox Valley Regional Planning Commission is here to help your community plan its future."

By 1975, according to the display with its charts, in Appleton there will be:

- 4,275 more jobs.
- 216 more acres for commerce and industry.
- 4,000 more homes.
- 113 more classrooms.

171 acres of parks and playgrounds.

More police and fire protection.

More sewer and water lines.

64,613 residents.

"Will Appleton's growth be a sprawl or planned expansion?" is the big question on the display. Only time will answer.

Members of the commission are Appleton, Kaukauna, Neenah and Menasha, the villages of Kimberly, Combined Locks and Little Chute, and the towns of Neenah, Menasha, Grand Chute and Buchanan.

St. Norbert Adopts Three Term System

Dean Says Plan Will Promote High Quality Academic Work

DE PERE — St. Norbert College has adopted a three-term school year, with the possibility of a fourth term being added during the summer months at a later date.

The announcement culminates many months of study into possible curricular changes at St. Norbert designed to upgrade the quality of student academic work. The new schedule is expected to go into effect for the 1963-64 term.

"There are several advantages in the new system," stated the Rev. Vincent J. De Leers, O. Praem., academic dean at St. Norbert, "but our primary consideration in making the change is to enable students to do a higher quality of work."

Three-Term Year

Under the new three-term school year, Father De Leers points out, a student will take fewer courses at one time, thus being able to devote more time to a lesser number of subjects.

St. Norbert thus joins a relatively small but growing number of leading colleges utilizing the three-year plan. According to Father De Leers, the plan was initially adopted by Dartmouth in the late fifties. Other colleges using the system include, among others, Knov, Carleton, and Lawrence.

It was under Father De Leers' direction that an extensive investigation into possible curricular changes at St. Norbert was carried out during the past two years. The three-term school year was brought up to the entire faculty for its original consideration last spring. Faculty members favored it at a meeting earlier this month, by a 50-17 vote. The faculty's recommendation was then submitted to the Board of Trustees, whose final approval was announced today.

Two Semester

The new calendar year does away with the two semester system currently in use. The exact scheduling has not yet been worked out, but tentatively, the three terms would run something as follows: from mid-September until early December, from January through mid-March, and

Two carloads of young people came to the rescue of an Appleton motorist Friday night. The driver was unable to move his car because of the icy pavement. Suddenly two cars stopped and out poured 10 or a dozen young boys and girls, obviously enjoying the season's first snowfall.

"We've got lots of help," one called as they put their shoulders to the task. "Just give us your address. We'll send you the bill," one quipped.

Some of the boys' jackets indicated they attended Xavier High School.

Appleton Youth Pleads Guilty To 5 Charges

An Appleton youth who grappled with an Outagamie County patrolman pleaded guilty to five charges and was returned to jail Friday afternoon to await further action Monday. He was held without bond.

Thomas W. Swiertz, 19, 1115 N. Durkee St., appeared before County Judge Gustave Keller in handcuffs. He pleaded guilty to charges of resisting arrest, two counts of speeding, making an illegal "U" turn and disorderly conduct.

The youth was arrested Thanksgiving night in the parking lot of the Club 96 beer bar by Patrolman Orville Crane.

Twin Cities Nearing Goal

Community Chest Drive Has Now Collected $144,367

NEENAH — The Neenah-Menasha Community Chest neared its $149,500 goal Friday with returns from employees of two major industries bringing the total to $144,367.

Paul A. Dodge, general chairman, said that some companies still have not reported their employee contributions.

Directors will meet Monday noon. It is hoped some of the late reports can be received prior to the meeting, Dodge said.

10 Agencies

Ten welfare, health and youth agencies benefit from the community chest drive. These are the Boy Scouts, Girl Scouts, Boys' Brigade, YWCA, Visiting Nurse Association, Neenah - Menasha Apostolate, Children's Service Society, Community Council, Family Service and Salvation Army.

This year's goal of $149,500 represents an increase of about 6 per cent over last year's goal of $140,900. The increase was caused by additional services, increased memberships and rising costs experienced by the various agencies.

Bar Scuffle At Brillion Leads to Fine

CHILTON — Allan Tikalsky, 25, Manitowoc, was fined $20 and ordered to make restitution for damages to a Brillion tavern after Calumet County Judge D. H. Seborra Friday after Tikalsky pleaded guilty of drunkenness and disorderly conduct.

Tikalsky was arrested about 1:20 a.m. Friday by Brillion Police Chief Delos Reynolds. Reynolds was summoned to the tavern when Tikalsky created a disturbance after apparently refusing to leave the establishment at closing time. He smashed the plate glass out of the tavern door while scuffling in an attempt to get him out of the tavern. Tikalsky was ordered to make restitution for the damage. No amount was specified.

Outagamie Case Worker Takes Veterans Post

Carl Fritschler, a child welfare case worker with the Outagamie County public welfare office for the past five years, has been appointed Veterans Administration clinical social worker for a 14 county Northeastern Wisconsin area.

Fritschler left the county welfare department Nov. 9 and takes his new position immediately.

The 14 county area served by Fritschler includes Outagamie County. His services will be primarily limited to veterans with service-connected physical and emotional problems.

He attended the University of Wisconsin in Madison and received his BA degree in February, 1954 and Master's Degree in social work in June, 1957.

A veteran of World War II naval service, Fritschler is married to the former Elaine Schumacher of Sturgeon Bay and has two children.

His new office is located in Federal Office Building in Green Bay.

Miss Joan Rausch, who formerly held the VA's clinical social worker position for this area, transferred to the Veterans Administration Center at Wood, Wis.

Hunter Denies 3 Violations Of Game Laws

James Kettenhoven, 24, of Black Creek, pleaded innocent to charges of shooting a deer out of season, possessing an untagged doe deer and of shining deer. He appeared Friday in Outagamie County Court, Branch 2.

County Judge Gustave Keller ordered bond set at $250.

Kettenhoven was arrested Thursday by conservation wardens. The offenses occurred Nov. 11 in the Town of Bovina, the wardens' report said.

Three other persons who were involved in the same case have pleaded guilty to the charge. One of the three has appealed the case to circuit court.

Three Christmas Parties Planned

KAUKAUNA — Plans have been announced by the Veterans of Foreign Wars Auxiliary for three Christmas parties, the first to be a covered dish affair for members at 6 p.m. Dec. 3 at the VFW hall.

A cocktail hour will precede the affair with Mrs. Victor McDaniel as chairman. A Christmas party for children of members will be held in the afternoon Dec. 9 at the clubrooms at which time treats will be distributed.

A joint party with the VFW male post will be held at 6 p.m. Dec. 22, opening with a covered dish supper. At the last meeting donations were approved for the Foster Children's home and the Salvation Army.

Democrats Spend Most

Campaign Costs Filed With County Clerk

Final election campaign expense reports have been filed with Outagamie County Clerk Mollie Pfeffer by 15 candidates and five political organizations.

The highest amount was reported by the Outagamie County Democratic Party. The party listed receipts of $2,823 and expenses of $2,808.

The "Rogers for Assembly Committee" listed $477.79 in receipts and expenses. The major item of income was $176.05, which was profit from a chicken booyah testimonial dinner given for William Rogers.

Rogers, the successful Democratic candidate for Outagamie County's 2nd Assembly District post, filed a report showing no income or expenses.

Babbitt Files

Rogers' Republican opponent, Marvin Babbitt, filed a similar report showing no income or expenses, but the "Babbitt for Assembly Committee" received and spent $608.48. The $608.48 in receipts included $309 from the Republican State Committee.

The "Froehlich for Assembly Committee" had receipts and expenditures of $32.36. Republican Harold Froehlich, who was elected and defeated Democratic Outagamie County's 1st District assemblyman, listed no receipts in his report, but $24.35 in expenses.

Reports were filed by two candidates according to state law for sheriff, Democrat Carl

$308,190 Will be Raised Through Tax Levy Based on $27 Per $1,000 of Valuation

COMBINED LOCKS — The village board has adopted a tentative budget for 1963 amounting to $431,069 of which $308,190 will be raised through the tax levy on the basis of a $27 per $1,000 assessed valuation tax rate.

Last year the total budget was $335,873 of which $245,169 was raised by the tax levy with a rate of $60 per $1,000. A reassessment completed in the village this year has increased the assessed value from slightly over $4,000,000 to $11,414,000, thus the tax rate has decreased although persons will still be paying more than in 1962 if the budget is adopted.

School Offers Steam Course

Menasha Class on Plant Operation Opens Jan. 15

MENASHA — The Menasha School of Vocational and Adult Education will offer a 2-hour course in steam plant operation, beginning Jan. 15 and continuing each Tuesday through April 30.

Designed for operating men, maintenance men and engineers from industrial power plants interested in the theory and practice of steam plant operation, the course has been offered as a correspondence course nationally by the University of Wisconsin. Arnold A. Bohjanen, member of the education committee for the National Association of Power Engineers, has been instrumental in promotion of the steam plant operation course.

The two hour classes, meeting for 16 weeks, will be taught by Prof. Paul J. Grogan and members of his staff.

Study Topics

Included in the course will be the study of boilers, construction of boilers, combustion of fuels, settings and stokers, boiler accessories, operation and maintenance of steam boilers and pumps.

Use of pulverized fuel, oil, gas and drafts; reciprocating steam engines; valve-operating mechanisms; operation and maintenance of steam engines; construction of steam turbines and auxiliaries and their operation and maintenance; auxiliary steam plant equipment; fundamentals of electricity and care and operation of electrical equipment, also will be covered.

Enrollments are now being taken at the Menasha Vocational and Adult School. There is a $15 fee for the course. V. I. Halverson, trade and industry coordinator for the school, urges an early registration.

Public Hearing School Offers Steam Course

A public hearing on the budget is set for 7 p.m. Tuesday. Major increase was noted in the education and recreation budget which increased from $131,000 in 1962 to $177,391 in 1963.

State and county taxes increased from $69,386 to $90,030. Another major increase is noted in highway and road expense which was raised from $71,900 in 1962 to $82,600 in 1963.

Government Down

Cost of general government for 1963 amounts to $11,760, a decrease from $17,780 for 1962. This year's budget included an appropriation of $7,000 for the reassessment thus this item is eliminated for 1963. Protection of persons and property amounted to $18,309 this year compared to an anticipated $19,500 in 1963.

Health and sanitation costs decreased from $6,500 in 1962 to $6,150 in 1963. Reason for the slight drop is less sewer construction anticipated next year. Bonded indebtedness payments for 1963 amount to $33,570 compared to $27,814 in 1962. Miscellaneous expenses in 1962 amounted to $13,192 compared to $10,018 in 1963.

Receipts other than the tax levy amounted to $110,705 in 1962 and the village board anticipates other receipts of $122,679 for 1963.

Firemen Answer Three Calls, Little Damage

KAUKAUNA — Firemen answered two calls Thursday and one Friday. Only one resulted in damage.

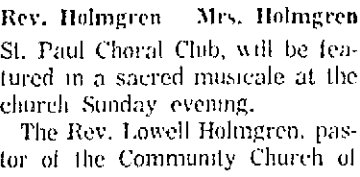

Firemen answered a false alarm phone call to the Robert Nack residence at 172 McKinley St. at 8:30 p.m. Thursday and at 8:30 p.m. were called to Meloxen Avenue and Dixon Street where a warning signal flare tipped igniting lumber and paper covering freshly poured concrete.

At 7:30 a.m. Friday firemen stood by at the Fred Voissem residence, 609 Joyce Street, while excess oil was burned from a flooded oil burner.

Minnesota Pastor to Preach at Christian Missionary Church

A pastor from Minnesota will speak at the 10:45 a.m. service Sunday. His sermon is entitled "The Forgotten Gospel." He also has served pastorates in Vermillion, S. D., and Tama, Iowa.

The sacred musicale at 7 p.m. Sunday will include solos by Mrs. Holmgren, two numbers by the church choir, and a piano and organ duet and a piano duet by Mrs. Holmgren and Mrs. Clark Gardner, wife of the pastor of the Christian and Missionary Alliance Church.

Rev. Holmgren Mrs. Holmgren

St. Paul Choral Club, will be featured in a sacred musicale at the church Sunday evening.

Extensive Travel

Mrs. Holmgren has traveled extensively with the St. Paul Choral Club of St. Paul, Minn., which has toured the Midwestern and Eastern states presenting sacred concerts. She appeared in a concert with the club at the Lawrence College Chapel. She majored in vocal music at St. Paul Bible College, where she met the Rev. Mr. and Mrs. Gardner.

Her solos will include "How Lovely Are Thy Dwellings," "The Holy City," and a psalm, "The Lord is My Light."

The numbers by the church choir will have a Thanksgiving theme, and will be "Now Thank We All Our God" and "Faith of Our Fathers."

The program also will include a number sung by the Rev. Mr. and Mrs. Holmgren and three of their four children.

The services are open to the public.

Safety Committee to Study Civil Defense

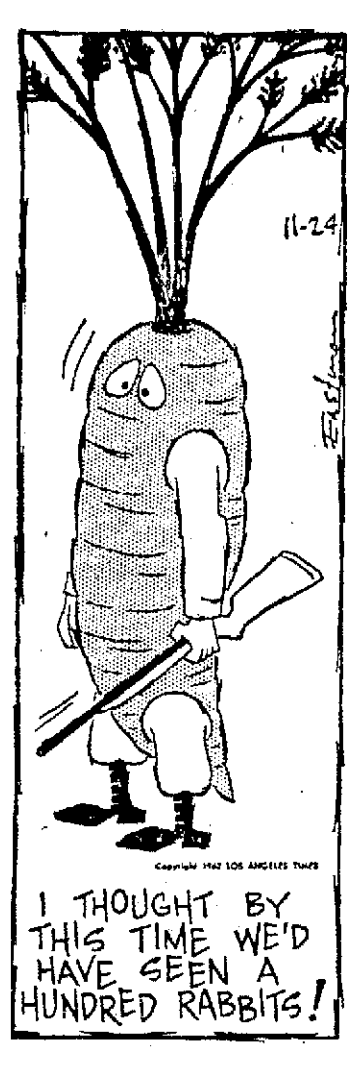

KAUKAUNA — The public protection and safety committee will meet with Michael Gerharz, civil defense director, at 6:30 p.m. Monday to discuss civil defense programs in the city.

Other routine matters will also be aired, according to Arnold Vanderloop, committee chairman.

Kennedy, Adenauer Cement Understanding Between Two Leaders

Germans, Americans Note
More Harmony in Relations

BY ENDRE MARTON AND CARL HARTMAN
WASHINGTON (AP) — Chancellor Konrad Adenauer's visit with President Kennedy had one positive result: It established a considerably closer understanding between the two leaders than their two earlier meetings did in 1961.

This greater rapport, stressed by close and high-ranking observers, almost bridged the difference in their personalities. Nobody de-

Two veteran AP newsmen, Carl Hartman who traveled from Berlin to cover the Kennedy-Adenauer meeting and Endre Marton of the Washington staff, pool their knowledge in this analysis of the meeting's results.

nies that such differences exist,
and they are serious.

Many Germans and Americans concerned with foreign affairs have been impressed with what they see as a change in American-German relations since the Kennedy administration came in.
Adenauer's relations with former President Dwight D. Eisenhower's government, especially with John

Foster Dulles, the late secretary of state, were deep and close.

However, President Kennedy's advent brought a change. There was distinctly less sympathy for Adenauer and his country among highly placed people in Washington.

Change in Mood

Now Adenauer's own relations with Kennedy seem to be changing for the better, and with the change came a change in the chancellor's own mood.

Those who watched the chancellor closely on his visits to Washington have noted this—especially the clear difference between his attitude of last year and this time.

A year ago Adenauer was a grim, sulky, irritable man. This time he was ready with a smile.
When he left Friday, he appeared happy and radiant.

Such outward signs reveal more with Adenauer than with other dignitaries. The chancellor is an old man (86) and, like old men in general, he is impatient. He would prefer to get through the routine of protocol as soon as possible. He has no pretension to appear as a diplomat whose features would never betray what he thinks.

Observers said that the change in Adenauer's mood was all the more significant because this time the chancellor obviously could not forget his serious troubles at home, which did not exist during his last visit a year ago.
The same observers explain the greater understanding between Kennedy and his guest by the quick agreement they reached at the outset of their first meeting on Wednesday. The agreement was to postpone any reassessment of the Berlin issue—and, in fact, of any other headache—until the chapter of Cuba can be closed.
By the agreement to do virtually nothing, inevitable controversies were avoided. This, observers believe, pleased Adenauer more than Kennedy.

The same observers object to calling the visit untimely. It is true, they concede, the visit was made under entirely different circumstances than existed when it was planned, but still it was important for the two leaders to get together in a period that Kennedy described as an "important turning point" in East-West relations.

When Adenauer was invited, President Kennedy's administration was predicting a major East-West crisis over Berlin. The Cuban crisis came instead, and Adenauer's trip had to be postponed for a week.

No Crisis

The Berlin crisis did not materialize, and Washington officials believe that there will be none for some time. They think the U.S. stand on Cuba has made the Russians think twice.

What exactly Kennedy meant by a "turning point" is not yet clear, but American officials tend to disagree with Adenauer's interpretation.

Adenauer was reported as saying privately he was convinced the President's intention was to warn that the immediate Soviet danger—in Cuba, in Berlin, and everywhere else—is not less, but probably greater than ever.

This would confirm the chancellor's thinking. In his remarks at the White House on his arrival Adenauer said, "I believe that more than ever in the last ten years we are confronted today with great dangers."

Kennedy, observers said, has no quarrel with this finding. But being a practical man, he cannot fail to note that the situation in Berlin is quiet — much quieter than anyone expected it to be now.

'The Vision'

St. Mary High School, Menasha, To Give Christmas Play Dec. 6-9

MENASHA — "The Vision" by William Grandgeorge will be the Christmas play presentation by the St. Mary High School drama group, Dec. 6 through 9 in the St.
Mary auditorium. The public is invited to attend the 8 p.m. performance on Dec. 9 and special showings will be held for the grade school children on Dec. 6.

Miss Rosemary Tretin is the director.

Set in a remote Bavarian village, the Christmas drama tells the story of Hans Lumpert, a humble cobbler, who finds himself the central character in a mysterious tale of a Christmas miracle. Karl Kobal plays the leading role.

On the morning before Christmas, Hans reports to his fellow tradesmen that he has experienced a vision. The butcher, Raymond Caston; baker, Ronald Schedgick; brewer, Randall Walbrun, and innkeeper, Leon Lauer, are skeptical listeners as Hans patiently explains that Christ has promised to visit his shop that very day.

Visit Shop

As the day passes, Hans waits and works. There are many visitors to his little shop, including Mrs. Loehr, a poor widow, played by Judy Wamscott, and her young daughter Hilda, played by Jill Reimer.

A lonely wanderer, Scott Butterfield, stops to have his boot mended. Later, compassionate Hans clothes Mrs. Betz's two children, Jane Galassie and Cynthia Remmel, in garments which are deeply meaningful to him.
Other visitors include Mrs.
Danne Witz, played by Susan Tews and Mrs. Fritz Schenkel, played by Nancy O'Melia.

Carolers

Carolers who sing outside Hans' shop are Kathy Drahem, Mary Galassie, Virginia Groves, Sandra Krzenezsky, Margie Lenz, Linda Sturn and Susan Ziellinski.

As the day draws to a close and Christ has not yet appeared, Father Albert, played by James Buhl, comforts the despairing cobbler and imparts to him a deep significance in the day's happenings.

Attorneys Say Nixon Didn't Commit Libel, But Personal Remark

LOS ANGELES (AP)—Richard
M. Nixon's attorneys contend the former vice president was simply expressing a personal opinion and not committing libel when he said he "wouldn't endorse Everett G.
Burkhalter for dogcatcher."

Nixon, unsuccessful Republican candidate for governor, made the remark during a campaign tele-thon early this month. Burkhalter, who unseated Republican Congressman Edgar W. Hiestand in the Nov. 6 election, filed a $2 million damage suit against Nixon.

Nixon's attorneys, in a demurrer, said in Superior Court Friday that Burkhalter's complaint does not constitute a cause of action.
Arguments on this legal objection will be heard Dec. 3.

Paar May be Filming TV Talk With Nixon

NEW YORK (AP)—Jack Paar was reported to be interviewing former Vice President Richard M. Nixon in the Bahamas Friday for an NBC television program, the New York Times reported.

"Mr. Paar is working on a show that would include a discussion of Mr. Nixon's future public life and of the comments made by Alger Hiss about Mr. Nixon on an American Broadcasting Co. program on Nov. 11," the newspaper said.

Nixon is vacationing with his family at Paradise Island, owned by Huntington Hartford, heir to the Atlantic & Pacific Tea Co.
National Broadcasting Co. in New York said that Paar had gone to Nassau on a short vacation, but said it knew nothing of his plans.

Negro Joins Atlanta Chamber

ATLANTA, Ga. (AP)—The Atlanta Chamber of Commerce has desegregated itself unwittingly and the president of the 103-year-old organization says he will go along with the result.

The 3,000-member group invited the H. J. Russell Plastering Co. to join, not realizing owner Herman Russell was a Negro.

Russell accepted.

The form letter urging Russell's firm to join was one of about 500 sent out under the signature of Ben S. Gilmer, president of the Chamber.

"If the invitation has been sent and he (Russell) has accepted it," Gilmer said Friday, "Then I would say he's a member. I don't attach any importance to it one way or the other."

Three Cars Damaged; One Driver Hits Tree

MENASHA — Two automobiles were damaged shortly after noon Friday in Menasha when a car driven by Darrel J. Buchanan, 54, 405 Congress St., Neenah, collided with one driven by Thomas
V. Meyer, 18, 137 Gruenwald Ave., Neenah.

Buchanan told police he turned right from Water Street onto High Street and did not see the Meyer car approaching. Meyer said he saw Buchanan but could not stop in time.

A second accident occurred early this morning when Gene L.
Tolin, 21, 825 Lincoln St., Mena-sha, skidded off the road and struck a tree on Manitowoc Street.
He received bruises to the top of his head and complained of a stiff left shoulder. Police advised him to see a doctor.

Fort Howard Mill Announces $6 Million Expansion Program

Two Paper Machines Will Hike
Production by 25 Per Cent

GREEN BAY — A major expansion program costing approximately $6 million was announced today by officials of the Fort Howard paper mill.

Major construction on the addition of two papermaking machines will be completed sometime in 1964.

The company reported the machines will increase mill production by 25 per cent and will result in an increase of employment in various mill departments by 10 per cent.

One of the phases of the construction program has been completed and now is in operation.

That is a water treatment plant and equipment at a cost of about $750,000.

The water treatment facility has a capacity for 35,000 gallons of water per minute. A unique feature is that the discharge point is upstream in the Fox River and the intake point is just below. A large share of the purified water is then returned for use by the mill.

Company officials reported construction has begun on the large building that will house the papermaking machines, with this part of the program expected to be completed in the first part of 1963. This will be followed by installation of the two paper machines.

The firm also reported its engineers are continuing their efforts to study ways to improve pollution control in the Fox River.

A report on pollution control was presented this week to the state committee on water pollution, headed by Theodore Wisniewski.

Iowa Motorist Seriously Hurt In Accident

R. R. Kenef, 25,
Suffered Crushed Chest Near Waupaca

WAUPACA — Rupert R. Kenef, 25, route 3, Sumner, Iowa, was seriously injured about 5 a.m.
Thursday when his car left State 22 in King and ran into the driveway at the Carrie Riley home.

Kenef, who was taken to Wau-paca Memorial hospital by John Bonnell, sheriff's deputy, was transferred later Thursday to St.
Michael Hospital, Stevens Point.
He has crushing chest injuries.

Bonnell said Kenef was driving alone. He was returning to Sumner for the Thanksgiving holidays from Shawano where he was teaching school. He told Bonnell he fell asleep.

Pinned in Car
Kenef was pinned in the car.
There were no seat belts.

A semi-truck, operated by Marlyn W. Rasmussen, 22, route 1, Weyauwega, and owned by Madison Sile Co., Waupaca, left State 22 and jackknifed six miles south of Waupaca about 11:30 a.m. Friday, Bonnell said.

George M. Thompson, 67, route
2, Plainfield, struck and killed a deer about 12:15 p.m. Thursday on State 22, five miles south of Waupaca. Thompson told Bonnell the deer leaped into the path of his car. Damages to the car were estimated at $150.

A truck, driven by Carl J.
Thorson, 52, route 1, Nelson, struck an open door on a parked car owned by Sylvester C. Redinger, 38, route 3, West Bend, about 10:15 a.m. Monday on U. S. 10 in Sheridan. Bonnell said the car was parked on the west side of the road, and the truck was going south. The truck knocked the door off the car.

Coat Reported Stolen

MENASHA — Mrs. Richard Lehmann, 820 Eighth St., Mena-sha, told police Friday that a coat valued at $45 and with $2 in a pocket was stolen Thursday night while her daughter, Cheryl, was at a dance at St. Patrick's Catholic School. Police are investigating.

Stevens Point Man Jailed, Fined for Killing Deer

WAUPACA — David F. Krause, 22, 401 East Ave., Stevens Point, was sentenced to 10 days in the county jail and fined for possession of illegal deer and deer shining by Municipal Justice George Whalen Wednesday.

Krause pleaded guilty of both charges. He was sentenced to 10 days in the county jail, fined $100 and lost his hunting and fishing licenses for three years on the charge of shining deer. He also was fined $50 for possession of illegal deer.

Krause admitted he was with Richard Natzke, 24, route 1, Ogdensburg, who was given the same fines and sentences Nov. 15.

Krause said Natzke shot the doe
Nov. 3 in the Town of Helvetia in the headlights of their car. He said he, Krause, killed the deer after it was wounded by the gunfire.

New Stockyard Being Planned At Hortonville

Armour Company to Abandon Station Owned by Railroad

HORTONVILLE — In an effort to keep the Armour Co. buying station in Hortonville, a new station is in the planning stage to replace the railroad stockyards now in use, according to Leo Kluge, Chamber of Commerce president.
Kluge appeared at a recent village council meeting with a representative of the Armour Co., who explained the company's desire to abandon the railroad owned stockyards.

An offer has been made by Armour to rent a station from a private individual or group of individuals if they would be willing to construct such a building.

Kluge said Friday that he personally is considering the construction of the station on property now owned by James Cuff near the Hotel Hoffman.

At the village board meeting
Kluge was informed that there were no zoning ordinances restricting the construction of the station on the Cuff property. They also expressed desire to see the buying station kept in Hortonville.

Kluge said at the present time livestock buying is done two and one-half days a week and the cattle is shipped by truck twice a week.

Six Tonsillectomies Save Repeated Trips

TULSA, Okla. (AP)—The six Kiper children, ranging in age from 5 to 13, had their tonsils removed Friday in a mass extraction.

Their parents, Mr. and Mrs.
James Kiper, who live northwest of Tulsa, explained they felt it would be simpler to have all six tonsillectomies at the same time, rather than make repeated trips to the hospital.

Select Jury Monday to Hear Iranian Man's Murder Trial

STEVENS POINT — A 12-man jury will be chosen from 70 Portage County residents Monday to decide the fate of Majid Amini Poufard, 27, a Stevens Point State College student from Tehran, Iran.

Poufard is charged with first degree murder in the death of

Winneconne CD Director Seeks Engineers' Advice

WINNECONNE — Police Chief Garnett Peterson, who recently took over as civil defense director for Winneconne, has asked federal engineers to visit the village and offer suggestions on materials needed for communications, warning system and a community shelter. Last week Robert Hansen, coordinator for a 10-county area and George Oaks, Winnebago County civil defense director, met with Chief Peterson.

fense attorneys, Byron Crowns and Morgan Midthun, Wisconsin Rapids, will start selecting a jury at 10 a.m. Monday in Circuit Court.

Denied Charge

Poufard, who is known as "Fred Amini" by his state college classmates, pleaded innocent of first degree murder when he was arraigned in Circuit Court after a lengthy preliminary hearing in County Court before Judge James Levi.

He pleaded innocent on the grounds of temporary insanity.
Dombrowski died between 2 and 2:30 a.m. May 18 from loss of blood and shock at St. Michael Hospital here.

Dr. Frank Iber, Stevens Point physician and surgeon, said Dombrowski had two slashes in his neck, one of which cut the aorta artery and the jugular vein.

Other Witnesses

Other witnesses at the preliminary hearing said Dombrowski received the fatal injuries at Morey's Bar, operated by Jerome Morey, 39, Town of Hull.

About 20 people were reported in the beer bar college hang-out on the early morning of May 18, but the testimony conflicted on a number of issues involved.

Conflicting testimony was given concerning the "tussle" between Amini and Dombrowski and events immediately after Dombrowski was injured.

General Telephone to Increase Suring Rates

MADISON (AP)—The General

Off-Broadway Theater Discussed by Jingo

Successful 'Fantasticks' One Example, Playing at St. Norbert Through Dec. 3

BY JINGO
"Off Broadway" is a term that has become a part of our language, but it — like much of the English language — has taken on a wide variety of meanings. They range from shoddy mediocrity to brilliant avant-garde.

Perhaps, on the average, the truth of the matter falls somewhere in the middle of the extremes. There's surely a little of both off-Broadway.

The bare facts are economic. The so-called off-Broadway production is in that locality because it's cheaper there. The theaters have less than 300 seats and that magic figure of 300 means a great deal in the never-never land of theatrical production.

A theater with 300 or less seats has a minimal schedule of charges. The actors, grips, ushers, etc., etc. all can be paid very little and the unions approve. However, a theater with 301 seats or more has a rigid, well enforced schedule that in comparison with the "off-Broadway" theater is closely akin to a space ship's itinerary.

Some productions in these small theaters are in the class with the dilettante press where anyone can be a published author — for a price. In these off-Broadway theaters the opportunity is the same for playwrights, producers or actors in one corner or another.

Some off-Broadway theaters are legitimate showcases where young talent in any of the theatrical arts can spread its wings, get a hearing and, perhaps, end up on Broadway with a "fabulous" career ahead of it. "Once Upon a Mattress" is a classic example of this type of showcase. It not only made the jump from off-Broadway to on-Broadway but to a successful road run of which we were lucky participants.

Another Side
There is at least one other off-Broadway theater. That's the more or less permanent, intimate showcase whose productions are tailored for the often Bohemian surroundings. Sometimes these shows achieve tremendous fame, but usually stay put. One of these successes is the fabulous "The Fantasticks." Perhaps it would be better to call it the fantastic "The Fantasticks."

Although the off-Broadway "Fantasticks" are still going full force, Fox Cities theatergoers needn't go to Gotham for the well-advertised thrills of the intimate show. St. Norbert should receive

Lucille Ball Now Her Own Employer

Star of Lucy Show Adds Corporate Duties to Busy Life

BY CYNTHIA LOWRY
NEW YORK (AP)—Lucille Ball of Desilu—described recently by an admirer as the "corporation president with the prettiest legs"—is winding up a short business trip to Manhattan and to date has not found her new added responsibilities particularly heavy.

A few weeks ago Lucy bought out her former husband's interest in their mutual television production company (for a reported $3 million) and assumed his post as head of the big studios.

This puts her in the rather curious position of being a star of "The Lucy Show," her own employee. And being an employee, she feels, is her number one job still.

"Fortunately we've got a good group working for us—the same ones who have been with us from the start," Lucy said reflectively. "There's the production head, the creative head, the financial head and the tax people. I'll be depending on them as we always have."

Will Miss Desi
Lucy does expect to miss Desi Arnaz, most of all as executive producer of her new series, which in a few weeks catapulted to the top of the popularity lists.

"I'm sorry to lose him, particularly his advice on playing comedy scenes and in the cutting. He's always had the last word there, and it's an area he knows so well and it is always so right."

Lucy and her new husband, comedian Gary Morton, are staying in a hotel while Lucy holds conferences with her sponsors, submits to an endless series of newspaper and magazine interviews and tries to sublet a big Manhattan apartment she leased before her marriage.

No More Specials
Lucy plans to plunge back into production of her show. She works on the schedule of intensive rehearsal leading up to shooting the episode before a live audience on Thursday nights. This, in the past has given her a chance to have long, restful weekends with her family.

She hopes her new job as Desilu president won't eat into this precious time—"although maybe it will cut into one of those days."

In any event, she will not be doing any more guest appearances or specials at least for the rest of this season.

At the moment Lucy doesn't know how long she wants to keep on with the new show—she'll make up her mind during the next few months.

Mounties Aid Roy Rogers at Horse Show

BY TV SCOUT

6:30-7:30 (Channel 11) — For a change, The Roy Rogers and Dale Evans Show offers something for all the country, not just the cowboy-song belt. This week, the family (Roy, Dale and assorted horses) are in San Francisco's Cow Palace, putting on a special program in conjunction with the Grand National Horse Show. You'll see a particularly thrilling routine by the Royal Canadian Mounted Police's team of precision riders.

6:30-7:30 (Channel 2) — Slapstick rules on the high comedy spot on this week's Jackie Gleason Show. Jackie and Frank Fontaine play a pair of alleged exterminators, who try to rid the apartment of Howard Freeman and Sybil Bowman of a mouse. Their technique is not very delicate, but it is funny in a wild sort of way. Also on the schedule is an Alice Ghostley - Gleason reprise of their Agnes and Arthur characters, a Joe the Bartender skit with Fontaine as Crazy Googhenham, and a visit from comic Harvey Stone.

6:30-7:30 (Channel 4-5) — Sam Benedict and Hank Tabor (Edmond O'Brien and Richard Rust) spend two cases this week, and both have relatively interesting aspects. Benedict's is a murder trial; he's asked by a fancy law firm to defend one of their members (Dan O'Herlihy) who is accused of doing in his own wife. Tabor's case is a libel proceeding, with David Sheiner as the publisher of a small sheet which had the audacity to print the truth.

7:30-8:30 (Channel 2) — The Defenders tells a simple and relatively unemotional story this week, with William Shatner doing a fine, straightforward job as an assistant DA in hot water. He has managed to convict Bert Wheeler—the old-time comic, playing it straight here—of bookmaking, but then turns around and gets a reversal of the verdict. Since he'd been approached with a bribe offer to do just that, bribery proceedings are brought against him. The Preston law firm believes him innocent, and sets about to prove it.

Actors Vincent Price, Peter Lorre and Boris Karloff may be the terror triumvirate, but they're always ready for a gag. Study Methods Can Boost Confidence for Taking Test

BY LESLIE J. NASON, ED. D.
Professor of Education, University of Southern California

How much study is enough? The most successful students have learned from experience that it's the method of study rather than the amount that produces satisfactory grades on an examination.

Yet, when exams approach, pre-test jitters will lead many students into frantic study. Many stay up all night just before the tests.

They go over their textbooks and notes time after time, searching for some detail they may have missed. They fear they will arrive at the examination to find they have studied the wrong things.

This is scarcely the frame of mind in which to write a good examination.

There are three ways to tighten up your study methods and help eliminate much of the nervous apprehension that precedes exams.

First, all study should start with an overall review of the materials that have been covered. The student must have some general organization such as an outline to serve as a guide.

Second, the student should get some idea of what his teacher considers important and, if possible, the type of exam to be given.

Third, he should enter the examination rested and with a definite plan of procedure for taking it.

Here are some procedures that will help you enter exams confident that you have studied enough.

In courses such as economics, sociology and psychology, the author's table of contents and major headings within the chapters may be used as a guide.

Formulate and answer questions from each topic and you will be sure that you have not omitted any major concept.

Check your notes for ideas not covered in the textbook.

In courses such as mathematics, physics, chemistry or accounting, problem analysis is the key to test mastery.

Questions to Answer
When you can lead through the test from problem to problem and answer the following questions in each case, you can enter the examination with confidence:

What principles were used in solving these problems?

How can I tell from the wording of the problem the principles to be used?

What are the processes of solution and how should it be written?

I have known students who checked each assignment in this manner and completed the final review in as little as 20 minutes, entered the exam with confidence and attained high grades.

In biological science, organic chemistry and other courses involving many details, a short outline of major concepts is essential to a systematic review.

Once this outline has been constructed, it forms the basis for a review which will leave you with a feeling of having fully covered the subject.

Opening Your Mail Can be Educational

Columnist Gains Liberal Education With Information

BY HAL BOYLE
NEW YORK (AP) — Things a columnist might never know if he didn't open his mail:

Half the American people have some sort of eye trouble.

One big reason why only 20 per cent of medical students plan to become general practitioners is that they make only about $16,000 annually but specialists earn about $35,000.

Weather forecasting by kites was introduced in 1700 by Dr. Alexander Wilson of Glasgow. The U.S. Weather Bureau also sent its thermometers aloft in kites until 1930, when it switched to high-altitude balloons.

$3 Bill?
There was such a thing as a $3 bill. It was issued by the Republic of Texas in the 1840s.

If America ever adopts the metric system, think what it will do to some of our familiar expressions: "A miss is as good as 1.6093 kilometers." "I wouldn't touch hi mwith a 3,049 meter pole!"

Only 9 per cent of the U.S. employed population works on farms, and our problem is food surpluses. In the Soviet Union 48 per cent of its workers labor on farms, and their problem is food shortages.

"Man is an animal that makes bargains: no other animal does this—no dog exchanges bones with another"—Adam Smith.

Among new paper products being developed are fire-and-water-resistant uniforms: shirts that can be worn once and discarded; non-skid, long-wearing, frost-proof coatings for highways.

Causes Cold
Some 40 viruses are believed involved in the common cold. That's why science is having such a hard time coming up with an all-purpose cure.

Researchers have found that, because of poor listening habits, most people forget in two days up to 75 per cent of what they hear. But is that such a bad idea—considering what they hear?

Frogs can catch athlete's foot. The king of hearts is the only king in a 52-card deck who doesn't wear a mustache as well as a beard. The cleanest air is over deserts. President Zachary Taylor never voted until he was 62.

It was Don Herold who observed, "Pleasure is more trouble than trouble."

Morrison Award To UW Professor

CHICAGO (AP)—The Morrison award of the American Society of Animal Science was presented Friday night to Dr. Malcolm Irwin, chairman of the University of Wisconsin department of genetics.

The award, made at the closing banquet session of the society's annual convention, is named for the late Henry B. Morrison, publisher of the animal husbandry periodical, Feeds and Feeding.

Frightened Reindeer Found Dead, Victim of Pre-Christmas Prank

GROSSE POINTE, Mich. (AP) —What began as a pre-Christmas prank ended in sadness today with the discovery of a dead reindeer on the shore of Lake St. Clair.

Two reindeer—Prancer and Dancer—were frightened during their Christmas promotion display case in front of a store Thursday night. Prancer's short romp through this Detroit suburb ended when police got a rope on him.

But Dancer was too quick. After dawn today police found the animal dead, its fur soaked. A veterinarian said fright or exposure—Dancer had been in the lake—killed the animal.

Two Injured In Accidents During Snow

Appleton City and Outagamie County police reported a total of 16 minor auto accidents Friday on slippery roads. Two persons were injured, one a pedestrian.
Henry Smith, 7, 614 1/2 W. College Ave., was struck by a car driven by Paul Fiebelkorn, 51, 12-15 W. Winnebago, as he attempted to cross College Avenue at Smith Street. Fiebelkorn said he did not see the boy. Smith received a puncture wound to his elbow requiring several stitches.
Paul E. Frank, 18, 221 S. Madison St., received a cut on his head when the car he was driving in the 1400 block of N. Alvin St. skidded into the curb and hit a tree. Two other passengers in the auto were not hurt.
City police reported nine accidents during the snow. County police reported 7 and one early today.

Enter Innocent Plea on Charge Of Lewd Books

Mrs. Gerald Schleis, 618 E. Brewster St., an Appleton bookstore owner, Friday pleaded innocent to a charge of selling lewd, obscene and indecent literature in her store.
She appeared before Outagamie County Court Branch 2 Judge Gustave Keller, who set trial for Jan. 23, 1963. Mrs. Schleis signed a $2,000 property bond.
The charge was brought by Appleton police, who searched Mrs. Schleis store with a search warrant last week and confiscated 322 magazines. The magazines were under the counters and in a backroom at the store.

Winnebago County Auto Crashes Injure Three

OSHKOSH — Three persons received injuries in two of eight accidents reported by Winnebago County Police Friday.
Among those injured were Aldeena M. Weede, 734 W. Wisconsin Ave., Appleton, 29, who complained of a pain in her left knee, arm and left knee. Her car was involved in a three-car accident on State 116, a mile south of Omro.
The other drivers were Carl Helwig, 71, Omro, and John D. Kellogg, 22, 1043 Shawano Ave., Green Bay, John Knapp, 28, Omro, a passenger in the Helwig car, received a cut on the nose and forehead. Police said Helwig's northbound car crossed the center line while he was rounding a curve and collided with the southbound Weede and Kellogg cars.

$5,000 Bond Set in Auto Theft Case

OSHKOSH — Bond of $5,000 was set for Friday for Larry Horner, 18, 506 Ohio St., Oshkosh, charged with auto theft. Another court appearance is scheduled Tuesday.
The complaint charges Horner with taking a car with dealer license plates from a used car lot Oct. 13 and driving the vehicle to Pennsylvania. He asked for a court-appointed attorney.

The APPLETON POST-CRESCENT
announces a NEW Community Reader Service for

YOUR FAMILY-

ACCIDENT PROTECTION FOR ALL

Protect every member of your family
by applying for each individual

Yes, it's true! An "All-in-One" policy will now protect each individual in your family. As you know, the rising costs of medical care and hospital expenses are greater than ever before. This policy helps reduce these unexpected expenses for both minor and serious accidents by paying "emergency cash benefits" ... when financial assistance is needed most.

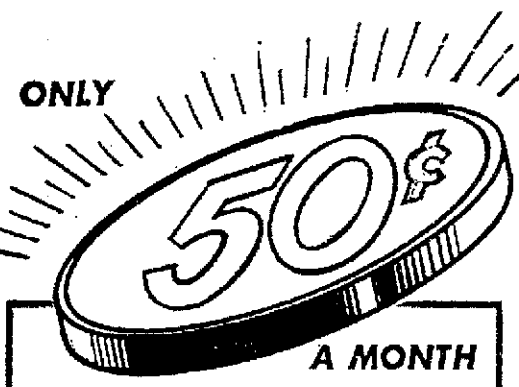

You need not be hospitalized to collect on this policy. One visit to your doctor for proper treatment of a small cut, burn or bruise and you receive up to $6.00, an amount equal to one entire year's premium.

Think of it! Your family can feel secure with 24 hour protection at home, at work, at school or play and while traveling on vacation. This policy pays in addition to any other insurance or compensation. It increases in value 1% each month for 5 full years at no increase in cost to you.

Every individual, to age 80, in this community is entitled to enroll for this Reader Insurance Service.

NO PHYSICAL EXAMINATION REQUIRED

YOUR EMERGENCY CASH BENEFITS

INDIVIDUAL POLICY
COSTS LESS THAN 1 2/3c A DAY
ONLY 50c A MONTH

An individual means an adult male or female, to 80 years of age, who is an enrolled reader. A child or other person, if residing at address of an enrolled reader, may be insured as an individual. One policy for each person.

Potter Confirmation Classes Attend Rally

POTTER — Members of seventh and eighth grade confirmation classes of Peace United Church of Christ, Potter, and their pastor, the Rev. R. O. Walkenhorst, attended a recent confirmation rally at Kiel.

The rally, staged at St. Peter United Church of Christ, was sponsored by the Calumet County Area Ministerial Association, headed by the Rev. Walkenhorst. More than 100 young persons attended. Mr. and Mrs. Larry Pagel accompanied the Potter group.

Set Cage Game Dec. 1 At Clintonville High

CLINTONVILLE — There will be an exhibition basketball game at 8 p.m. Dec. 1 at the Senior High school gym when Canada's Harlem Diplomats will be playing against the local BABA All-Stars.

The Harlem Diplomats recently returned from an overseas tour. A special highlight of their game is the magic circle done in complete darkness.

Stevens Point Man Jailed, Fined for Killing Deer

WAUPACA — David F. Krause, 22, 401 East Ave., Stevens Point, was sentenced to 10 days in the county jail and fined for possession of illegal deer and deer shining by Municipal Justice George Whalen Wednesday.

Krause pleaded guilty of both charges. He was sentenced to 10 days in the county jail, fined $100 and lost his hunting and fishing licenses for three years on the charge of shining deer. He also was fined $50 for possession of illegal deer.

Krause admitted he was with Richard Natzke, 24, route 1, Ogdensburg, who was given the same fines and sentences Nov. 15.

Krause said Natzke shot the doe Nov. 3 in the Town of Helvelia in front of the headlights of their car. He said he, Krause, killed the deer after it was wounded by the gunfire.

their second immunization from Dr. Joseph Pellicer at Brillion Public School. In addition to those from the host school, children will come from St. Mary Catholic, Trinity Lutheran and the Forest Junction schools.

Forty-eight are slated for immunization from St. Mary Catholic, St. Peter Lutheran, Hilbert, Trinity Lutheran, Potter, St. Mary and Stockbridge Public schools; Stockbridge; St. John the Baptist School, St. John and the Sacred Heart and Harrison schools, Sherwood.

At St. Mary School, Chilton, some 40 youngsters are scheduled for immunization by Dr. Robert Knauf at 9:30 a.m. Dec. 11. Aside from the host school, they will be from St. Augustine and Chilton Public Schools, Chilton; St. Martin School, Hayton; Holy Trinity, Jericho; St. Charles, Charlesburg; Holy Rosary and New Holstein Public, New Holstein, and St. Ann, St. Anna.

This concludes the program for the year. The initial immunizations were given in November.

Bishop Names Relief Head

Chilton Pastor Directs Latin America Unit

CHILTON — The Rt. Rev. Msgr. Alfred A. Schneider, Chilton, has been appointed director of Catholic Relief Services for all of South America.

The appointment was announced recently by Bishop Edward E. Swannstrom, executive director of Catholic Relief Services, the worldwide relief agency of the American Catholic Bishops.

Msgr. Schneider has been serving in South America since 1960. He was director of the relief agency's activities in Brazil until the recent elevation.

Msgr. Schneider first joined the organization in 1948 serving initially in Germany and later in Viet Nam, Pakistan and India. He returned to this country in 1956 and accepted a pastorate, St. Charles Barroon Church, Leona.

In 1959 he gave up his parish and rejoined the CRS and took charge of the program in Brazil.

Named the "most improved" was Fullback Steve Hedtke, the son of Mr. and Mrs. Evan Hedtke, 72 Fifteenth St.

Blame Slippery Roads

Minor Traffic Mishaps Occur in New London

NEW LONDON — Slippery streets contributed to four accidents Friday. Only one resulted in damages of over $100.

The most serious occurred at 5:10 p.m. on the Canal Bridge north of the city. Cars driven by Richard Bast, 19, 106 E. Winnifred St., New London and Charles F. Hamilton, 19, 39 E. 12th St. Clintonville, collided head on. Police said the Hamilton car which was traveling north, crossed the center line and struck the Bast car. Both drivers escaped injury but the front ends of both cars were badly damaged.

In other minor accidents, cars driven by Anna Henchel, route 4, Manawa, and Hubert Fuerst, 67, 1002 Montgomery St., New London collided at the intersection of E. Beacon Ave. and Mill St. The accident occurred at 11:37 a.m. Fuerst was traveling east on Beacon Ave. and the Henchel car was traveling north on Mill St. Damages were estimated at under $100.

At 2:10 p.m. cars driven by Marvin G. Regener, 24, 306A E. Bolivar Ave., Milwaukee and Stephen Guenther, 19, 1728 Menominee Dr., Oshkosh, were involved in a crash near the intersection of U.S. 45 and State 54. Police said Tegenauer was traveling north on U.S. 45 and slowed down for a car that was turning. Guenther also traveling north, was unable to slow down and struck the Regener car from the rear. Damages were estimated at under $100.

The third accident that resulted in damages of under $100 occurred at the intersection of Lawrence and Hancock streets when a car driven by Dennis J. Cooney, 18, route 1, New London, attempted to make a left turn onto Lawrence Street and skidded into a parked car owned by Robert Roland, 612 Lawrence St.

CHILTON — An organization meeting for the Parent - Teacher Association unit proposed for Chilton has been scheduled for 8 p.m. Wednesday at the high school. Parents of public and parochial school children from kindergarten through high school who are interested in forming a PTA group are asked to attend.

Preliminary planning has been carried out by a steering committee comprised of Mrs. William Hedrich, Mrs. Andrew Pendl, Mrs. John Sievertson, Mrs. Lewis Towers, Mrs. Del Cain and Mrs. Quentin Moeschner.

Stevens Point

Select Jury Monday to Hear Iranian Man's Murder Trial

STEVENS POINT — A 12-man jury will be chosen from 70 Portage County residents Monday to decide the fate of Majid Armini Poutard, 27, a Stevens Point State College student from Tehran, Iran.

Poutard is charged with first degree murder in the death of Albert Dombrowski, 28, Town of Amherst, May 18.

Dist. Atty. John Haka and defense attorneys, Byron Crowns and Morgan Midhun, Wisconsin Rapids, will start selecting a jury at 10 a.m. Monday in Circuit Court.

Denied Charge

Poutard, who is known as "Fred Armini" by his state college classmates, pleaded innocent of first degree murder when he was arraigned in Circuit Court after a lengthy preliminary hearing in County Court before Judge James Levi.

He pleaded innocent on the grounds of temporary insanity. Dombrowski died between 2 and 2:30 a.m. May 18 from loss of blood and shock at St. Michael Hospital here.

Dr. Frank Iber, Stevens Point physician and surgeon, said Dombrowski had two slashes in his neck, one of which cut the aorta artery and the jugular vein.

Other witnesses at the preliminary hearing said Dombrowski received the fatal injuries at Morley's Bar, operated by Jerome Morey, 39, Town of Hull.

High School Construction Postponed

Construction of a new Catholic high school to serve Manitowoc and Two Rivers has been postponed temporarily.

The delay is being made so that $1,000,000 will be collected before construction starts, the Most Rev. Stanislaus V. Bona, Bishop of Green Bay, said in a letter to the 10 parish churches of the two cities. The school will cost more than $2,000,000.

The present target date for the beginning of construction is 1965. The pastors have indicated that the $1,000,000 can be raised by July of 1965.

A fund-raising drive for the new school conducted in Manitowoc and Two Rivers last summer raised three-year pledges and contributions totaling $716,000.

Construction of the new building will take about 18 months. The high school will be co-institutional, with the Franciscan Sisters of Christian Charity teaching the girls and the Christian Brothers of the St. Louis Province teaching the boys. Both orders teach at Xavier High School in Appleton.

Clintonville Street Extension Hearing Set for Wednesday

CLINTONVILLE — A public hearing on the extension of Paulina Street across the Chicago & Northwestern railroad tracks will be held at the City Hall at 8 p.m. Wednesday.

The planning and street committees of the Common Council will meet and discuss the issue with any interested parties.

The city plans to connect the two ends of Paulina Street, making it a through street from Auto Street to Maize Street.

Forest Junction PTA to See Mental Health Play

FOREST JUNCTION — Attic Theatre actors will present a one-act play on mental health at the November meeting of the Forest Junction Elementary Parent-Teacher Association at 8 p.m. Thursday.

The play, "Scattered Showers," will portray mothers discussing problems with their children. James Cowan, Appleton school system psychologists, will conduct a question and answer period after the play.

Bar Scuffle Leads to Fine

CHILTON — Allan Tikalsky, 25, Manitowoc, was fined $20 and ordered to make restitution for damages to a Brillion tavern after he was summoned to the tavern when Tikalsky created a disturbance after apparently refusing to leave the establishment at closing time. He smashed the plate glass out of the tavern door while scuffling in an attempt to get him out of the tavern. Tikalsky was ordered to make restitution for the damage. No amount was specified.

Tikalsky was arrested about 1:20 a.m. Friday by Brillion Police Chief Delos Reynolds. Reynolds was summoned to the tavern when Tikalsky created a disturbance after apparently refusing to leave the establishment at closing time. He smashed the plate glass out of the tavern door while scuffling in an attempt to get him out of the tavern. Tikalsky was ordered to make restitution for the damage. No amount was specified.

Forest Junction To Plant Trees

FOREST JUNCTION — In continuation of a tree planting program begun under previous school district ownership, 1,000 evergreens will be planted in Freitag Memorial Woods by the Forest Junction Civic League.

An order for two varieties for springtime planting is being placed with the Wisconsin Conservation Department through the Calumet County Extension Office. Between 1,000 and 1,500 white pine and white spruce previously have been planted annually for a number of years.

Natural thinning of a 25-acre woodland tract has left considerable open space in the area. Self-propagation of maturing evergreens in the woods is being aided by the plantings.

Green Bay Survey

Parochial Schools Save Taxpayer $100 Million

Another $100 million would have had to be raised by property taxation in Wisconsin last year had not Catholic schools been operating, according to a study made by the Green Bay Register, diocesan weekly newspaper.

In the Diocese of Green Bay, the amount saved because of Catholic schools totals an estimated $20,676,144.

The study showed that the 59 Catholic high schools saved taxpayers $14,105,120 for the 1961-62 school year, and the 558 Catholic grade schools saved $82,007,792. Enrollments last year totaled 202,139 in the Catholic grade schools and 28,766 in the Catholic high schools.

The Register arrived at the figures by calculating the average cost of educating one grade and high school student in 10 of the larger public school systems in Wisconsin. The 10 public school systems used were Appleton, Oshkosh, Green Bay, Sheboygan, Fond du Lac, Manitowoc, Madison, Kenosha, Racine and West Allis.

The study used the average per pupil cost in the public schools for the 1960-61 school year because figures for last year were not available. The average cost of educating one high school student was $490.34, and that for one grade school pupil was $405.70. These figures include operating costs only, and not capital outlay items.

Increased Enrollments

The study estimates that with increased school enrollments and rising costs in education from the 1960-61 term to the 1961-62 school year, the amount now saved the taxpayers through the Catholic schools could approach and possibly exceed the $100,000,000 mark.

Figures on the average cost of actually educating one student in a Catholic school are not available because of the diverse nature of the individual schools. However, a Register survey of the nine major Catholic high schools in the diocese showed an average cost of $163.77 per student.

The Green Bay Diocese had 4,932 high school and 44,979 grade school pupils enrolled in Catholic schools last year.

Census figures show that 31.9 per cent of the elementary school pupils in Wisconsin were enrolled in non-public schools last year. Wisconsin led the nation in this percentage, and Calumet County, with 69 per cent of its grade school pupils in private or parochial schools, led the state.

New London May Have Aerial Maps For Master Plan

1,400 Acres of Topographical Work, Picture of City Included

NEW LONDON — Members of the planning commission discussed aerial topographical mapping of 1,400 acres and photography at a recent meeting of the commission and members of the planning firm.

A Chicago aerial mapping concern and Candeb Fleissig Associates, planning firm, said the map will be used for future engineering work and planning. An aerial photograph of the city also will be taken he said. This photo will include the city and one and one-half miles on all sides of the city except the west, where it will extend approximately one-half mile.

The reason for mapping only 1,400 acres of the city was to conserve on the cost of the mapping. Schlafer said.

Mayor Schlafer said the planning firm now has made a price on the master planning project. A meeting of the commission will be held sometime within a week to accept or reject the bid. The price was not disclosed. If the bid is accepted by the commission, it will then be taken to the council. Mayor Schlafer added approval to go ahead with the project already has been given by the council, but the final bid and program again will be presented to them to keep them abreast of the project.

2 Chilton Men Appointed to Kiwanis Posts

CHILTON — Two Chilton Kiwanians have been named to district youth service chairmanships by Charles Derr, Fond du Lac governor of the organization's Wisconsin - Upper Michigan district.

Martin Bankert is the new district chairman of the Circle K Clubs. They are comprised of college students who carry on a Kiwanis program on the campus of colleges in the district.

Andrew Pendl is chairman of Kiwanis Key Clubs. They deal with high school age students. The "Key" units are service clubs of high school boys sponsored by the respective Kiwanis Clubs.

Firemen Put Out Waupaca Car Blaze

WAUPACA — The Waupaca fire department was called about 12:15 p.m. Thursday to extinguish a fire on a rear seat cushion of a car parked in front of Drivas Drug Store, Main Street.

Straight A Grades

SHIOCTON — Audrey Helsner, a senior at Shiocton High School, was the only pupil to have a straight A report card for the first nine week grading period.

New Stockyard Being Planned At Hortonville

Armour Company to Abandon Station Owned by Railroad

HORTONVILLE — In an effort to keep the Armour Co. buying station in Hortonville, a new station is in the planning stage to replace the railroad stockyards now in use, according to Leo Kluge, Chamber of Commerce president.

Kluge appeared at a recent village council meeting with a representative of the Armour Co., who explained the company's desire to abandon the railroad owned stockyards.

An offer has been made by Armour to rent a station from a private individual or group of individuals if they would be willing to construct such a building.

Kluge said Friday that he personally is considering the construction of the station on property now owned by James Cluff near the Hotel Hoffman.

At the village board meeting Kluge was informed that there were no zoning ordinances restricting the construction of the station on the Cluff property. They also expressed desire to see the buying station kept in Hortonville.

Kluge said at the present time livestock buying is done two and one-half days a week and the cattle is shipped by truck twice a week.

Driver Training Program Begins At Stockbridge

STOCKBRIDGE — Behind-the-wheel driver education for the 24 Stockbridge High School pupils enrolled in the course will begin during the new grade term that opens Monday, Paul Dobias, principal, has announced.

The pupils have successfully completed the classroom instruction given by Norman Lantus. It is planned that each student will be given six hours of actual driving experience. The classroom on wheels will be a 1963 Chevrolet the school received from Gustman Chevrolet Sales, Kaukauna, for use in the driver education class.

Church Women Elect Officers

CHILTON — Mrs. Wilber Winch is the newly elected president of the Lutheran Ladies Aid Society of St. Martin Lutheran congregation here. She succeeds Mrs. Eldred Hedrich.

Other newly elected officers include Mrs. Emil Jodar, vice president; Mrs. August Schmidt, secretary, and Mrs. Ferdinand Stecker, treasurer.

The group also scheduled its Christmas party for Dec. 13 with Mrs. George Stecker, Mrs. Winch, Mrs. George Steger and Mrs. Leonard Klein as hostesses.

A rummage sale will be sponsored in connection with the Walter League chili supper and Guild bake and candy sale Thursday.

Iola-Scandinavia Matmen Tip Marion

JOLA — The Iola-Scandinavia High School wrestling team won its first match of the season at Marion Tuesday evening, 30-25.

Victorious Thunderbolts were Duane Jensen, Leon Christiansen, Paul Finch, Neil Strom, Bob Kohel, and Jim Wiley. Larry Marquardt, Carl Kleditz, and Gary Neider were pinned. Two forfeits contributed to the losers score.

The wrestling team has 14 matches scheduled for the year. Six are Central Wisconsin Conference matches. The next will be in Iola at 7:30 p.m. Nov. 27. The visiting team will be Amherst.

Waupaca Records 2nd CWC Victory

Wittenberg Remains Tied for Lead by Downing Marion, 60-41

CENTRAL WISCONSIN CONFERENCE
Waupaca	2	0	Weyauwega
Wittenberg	2	0	Marion
Wausau	1	0	Bonduel
Manawa	1	0	Amherst
Iola-Scandinavia	1	1	Amherst
Iola-Scandinavia	1	1	Amherst
Friday's Results:
Wittenberg 60, Marion 41
Iola-Scandinavia 70, Amherst 68
Waupaca 53, Manawa 51
Weyauwega 47, Bonduel 37

A late Manawa comeback fell short Friday night and Waupaca scored its second straight Central Wisconsin victory by a 53-51 score to remain tied with Wittenberg for the lead. Wittenberg had little trouble with Marion, 60-41.

In the other Friday night games defending champion Weyauwega notched its first win by tripping Bonduel, 42-37. Iola-Scandinavia disposed of Amherst, 70-68 in the evening's high scoring match.

With two minutes left in the Waupaca game, the Chiefs held a seemingly comfortable 51-41 lead. Then Bill Rhode and Don Thiel each slipped in four points to narrow the gap. Waupaca held on bitterly at the end.

Bill Spiegler, a 5-10 guard, led Waupaca in scoring as the Chiefs swept off to a 14-10 first quarter lead and were not headed. It was 26-22 at the half and 37-34 at the end of three periods. Spiegler ended with 21 points and Rhode, a 5-8 guard, had 19.

Never Threatened

Wittenberg was never seriously threatened by Marion as they posed 12-8, 30-20, and 47-31 quarter margins. Reserves played much of the later moments of the contest for both teams.

The Wittenberg attack was well divided with four players scoring in double figures. Steve Strong had 17, Mike Swenson 11, Mike Haansted 11 and Don Leisch had 10. In a game dotted with 45 free throws, John Pockat was high for Marion with one basket and eight charity tosses for 10 points.

Wega trailed most of the game, but put on a tremendous third quarter burst which overtook host Bonduel. Bonduel led 9-4 at the quarter and 19-15 at halftime. Then Coach Jim Otte's defending champions rallied with 15 points in the third period to take a 29-28 lead. It fluctuated right to the end.

Weyauwega won the game at the free throw line, making 16 of 21 attempts. Bonduel had only seven out of 18. Harold Barker of Wega and Owen Boettcher of Bonduel led balanced individual scoring attacks with ten points each.

Amherst led most of the way against Iola-Scandinavia, sometimes by as much as 11 points, but faltered in the fourth period and dropped the two point decision. The winners faced a 39-30 halftime deficit, then sprang back with 40 points in the final two periods.

Jim Sorenson led I-S to the win with the league's finest individual scoring effort of the evening. He scored 35 points, including 14 field goals for the winners. Four Amherst players, topped by John Pitt's 17 point total, hit the double figures.

2 Waupaca National Guard Officers Receive Promotions

WAUPACA—The rank advancement of two Waupaca National Guard officers was announced Friday at divisional headquarters.

First Lt. Arlin C. Barden, commanding officer of Battery A, Second Howitzer Battalion, 120th Artillery, 32nd Division, Wisconsin National Guard, has been advanced to the rank of captain.

Capt. James Bowersox, former commanding officer of the local unit, who is now assigned to Headquarters Battery, First Howitzer Battalion, 120th Artillery, Stevens Point, has been advanced to the rank of major.

Capt. Barden has 18 years of service, joining the Waupaca unit in 1948. Major Bowersox has 23 years of service.

Staff Sgt. Myron Halstead, administrative and supply technician of the local unit, said the advancements were retroactive as of Nov. 1.

Capt. Barden is business manager at the Grand Army Home for Veterans, King. Major Bowersox is a rural mail carrier with the Waupaca post office.

Pet of Appleton Children Shot, Killed Today

Vickie, a large German Shepherd dog owned by Ray Frederickson, route 3, Appleton was shot near the heart and through the head about 10 a.m. today.

Mrs. Frederickson reported to the Outagamie County Sheriff's Department.

Mrs. Frederickson said the dog was found lying on the road near the front of the home. The 3-year-old dog was the pet of the Frederickson children, she said.

She said the dog had been shot at on other occasions.

Mrs. Frederickson said she did not think the shooting was the work of hunters.

Law Proposed to Hike Overdue Parking Fines

Ordinance Being Written Calling for $2 Fine After 5-Day Failure to Pay

The city attorney has been authorized by the common council to prepare an ordinance calling for a $2 fine for parking tickets not paid within five days after being received by motorists.

Police Chief Earl Wolf requested the ordinance recently after calling attention to the fact that more than 1,000 parking tickets are overdue and remain unpaid.

Under the present setup, there is no time limit for paying the parking ticket fine which is $1.

Hire Treasurer

Hired Mrs. Geraldine LaBore, 1800 S. Walden Ave., as deputy city treasurer at the starting salary of $350 per month. Mrs. LaBore has already assumed her duties.

Approved the employment of Harold H. Douglas as record clerk for the street-sanitation department with his salary to be determined by the personnel committee.

Ordered that when a special trash pickup is requested, it must be done at the direction of the mayor, aldermen or director of public works.

Granted continued employment status to Ewald Rehfeldt, Carl Van Dinter and Peter Vanden Widenberg for the year 1963. They have reached the 65-year retirement age.

Demolish Building

Authorized demolition of the old Humane Society building on city-owned property at the sewage treatment plant.

Instructed the board of public works to negotiate for the purchase of land for the expansion of Hoover Park.

Referred the tentative Park Hills plat to the Fox Valley Regional Planning Commission's thoroughfares committee in connection with the proposed expressway location.

Accepted the low bid of Somerville Sign Co. in the amount of $590 for parking structure signs.

Rejected the old freight depot of the Chicago and North Western railroad as a new fire station site.

The youth was arrested Thanksgiving night in the parking lot of the Club 96 beer bar by Patrolman Orville Crane.

The youth then sped away and drove to the Club 96 beer bar. He went inside, Crane said, but returned to his car, drove from the lot, made the "U" turn and sped back into the lot. Crane then entered the tavern and asked the youth to come outside.

The youth refused to come, Crane said, so he was dragged from the tavern, Crane said the two scuffled outside the tavern, and Swiertz went after Crane's sidearm. Crane received help from two spectators in overpowering the youth, and he was taken to the Outagamie County jail in handcuffs.

Later, because there was no room in solitary confinement, Swiertz was transferred to the Appleton city jail where he was held overnight.

According to Outagamie County Patrolman Orville Crane, he followed Swiertz on Wisconsin Avenue at speeds up to 80 miles an hour. He stopped the car and gave the youth a summons to appear today in court.

He was charged with making an illegal "U" turn, two counts of speeding, disorderly conduct and resisting arrest. Judge Gustave Keller ordered the youth held without bond until this afternoon for sentencing.
